Leadership In the fast pace of growing world with advancement in technology, industrial and scientific sectors, one of the biggest enormities the human population countenance is the war on terrorism. The prime and fundamental intention or the idea of any terrorist activity is the create fear and dread amongst the populace. However, governments of several nations are working on continuous basis to bring a halt to the war on terrorism. The functioning of government bodies towards the war on terrorism reveals the fact and idea about their leadership qualities that they possess in order to make the country grow in all perspectives that include the social, economic, and political domains. One of the recent incidents provides a clear piece of information about the implementation of the leadership strategies and plan of actions to contribute in the declination to the war on terrorism that is the ' assassination of the mastermind of terror, Osama Bin Laden' (Granderson, 2011). The killing of Osama Bin Laden is a recent occurrence of an event under the leadership of Barack Husein Obama, the current president of the United States of America. If one tries to look at different aspects of this event, it is an observation that although this event became one of the most talked-about events of the history, and media of the whole world counted it as greatest victory of Obama's leadership. However, it is very important the one should look at different effects of this leadership while considering the case study of Osama's killing. While analyzing it on ethical basis, study indicates that the Obama's leadership decided to carry out killing of Osama based on different allegations, most common, 9/11 attacks on World Trade Center in 2011 (CNN, 2011). However, one can observe debate in media regarding leadership's decision of arranging killing mission rather than a trial that has resulted in ethical discussion of whether it was ethically correct to <https://assignbuster.com/describing-a-situation-where-leadership-was-properly-exemplified-or-not/>
