

Richard corey monologue

ASSIGN BUSTER

I have been Richard Corey's butler for the best of nine years now and not once has he ever said thank you for my services, he depends on me day in day out if it wasn't for me he wouldn't be where he is today.

Not once have I been given a bonus or a rise, he is just so selfish

And he expects so much from people.

I know Mr Corey better than any one really and he's not all what the media think is they all say what a nice person he is going to hospitals caring for others but that's not the case he doesn't give any money to his family he never donates to charity's he's always out partying and it's me who pays the next morning having to tell the media to get out of the doorstep.

He also makes me do the worst chores like cleaning out the drains and cleaning toilets the room he has given me is so small and I have Asked if I can move out but he said I need to stay for the money he's paying me.

He treats me like a piece of dirt now he never used to he's nearly always shouting his orders at me some nights I'm awake all night cleaning finishing the jobs Richard he has asked me to do.

Before Richard was as famous as he is now we were really good friends I remember the time when he Couldn't even afford a cup of tea I used to look out for and he did likewise but over the years when he has built up business I have still been there for him but now when he struck it rich and became a the star it seemed like our friendship was fading apart he seemed to forget about me then out of the blue Richard called me on the phone and offered me the chance to work for him as a butler at the time I was broke so I took the job with both hands. But as time went on our friendship was breaking apart, I didn't feel we were friends any more I feel like he is using me we don't have the same bond as we used to all the times I have helped him and this is how he repays me.

So now I am working for him but not as a friend because he treats with no dignity and he has forgotten about our friendship before he was famous.

At the moment Richard is getting into a lot of trouble with the media and press where he has been sleeping around with different girls and also he has been linked lots of times of possessing drugs sometimes I feel like I should talk to him about his troubles with the press and media but after the way he has treated me recently I really do not feel inclined to help him.

It seems to me that he is giving me more work to do around the house than normal it's almost like when he looks at me I remind him of the times when he was down when he was not rich and famous so he tends to this out on me by giving me extra work to do around the house.

All his fans and the media seem to think what a great person he is but I get to see Richard day in day out and I can tell you that he's not all smiles he's nearly always drunk he does not want anything to do with his family he doesn't give his family a share of his earnings either, he really is not a nice person at all and I just wish his fans could see the way that he is around the house and the way he treats me and his family then his fans could see him for what he really is.

I feel after the long time I have served Richard Corey as a butler after the long time he has been treating me badly I feel like that I really do not want to work for him any more so one day I sat down and had a talk with Richard the way he acted toward me it seemed like he didn't really care about me resigning but I know deep down inside he really did and that he knew he was losing his friend and colleague, but am sure with all money Richard has got after no time he would be able to find a new butler and he would soon forget about me, but I feel I have made the right choice I just could not carry on working for him because now he is not my friend or my colleague.
