

Chapter 6 catch me if you can vocab

ASSIGN BUSTER

ruminate to meditate, think about at length; to chew the cud trepidation Fear, nervous apprehension bilked cheated allayed calmed or alleviated allure (v.) to entice, tempt; to be attractive to; (n.) a strong attraction; the power to attract, charm capera playful leap or hop voucher An authorization form prepared for each expenditure in a voucher system unobtrusive not readily noticeable, inconspicuous rudimentary Basic; elementary; in the earliest stages of development epitome (n.) a summary, condensed account; an instance that represents a larger reality impromptu (adj., adv.) without preparation, offhand, suddenly or hastily done; (n.) an extemporaneous composition or remark; a minimal piece suggestive of improvisation nebulous (adj.) cloudlike, resembling a cloud; cloudy in color, not transparent; vague, confused, indistinct paltry Pitifully small or worthless surreptitiously Done by secretive means capricious changing one's mind quickly and often jauntily In a light and carefree way illicit Illegal posse Actual care, custody, control, or management. chafed uncomfortable or irritated feasible Capable of being accomplished autonomy (n.) self-government, political control garnered gathered and stored nefarious (adj.) wicked, depraved, devoid of moral standards exude To flow out slowly; to ooze or emit facet Humorous; playfully joking

ON CHAPTER 6 CATCH ME IF YOU CAN VOCAB SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13.90/PAGE Order Now