

The call of the wild

chapter 6

The two men from the states who bought the sled team were named? Hals and Charles Who was Mercedes? Hal's sister and Charles wife What did the townsmen encourage the group not to take with them on the trip? The tent. Explain why they thought the dogs were lazy. The dogs could not get the sled to break free. What happened to the sled on the first turn? It tipped over. Why did the dogs keep going after the incident with the sled. They thought they were being treated unfair. How were the dogs feed at the beginning of the trip? They were overfed. Towards the end of the trip, what did the dogs eat? Horse hides Who did the group ask advice from on the trail? John Thornton What is the name of John Thornton's other two dogs? Skeet and Nig What did Skeet do for or to Buck? Clean his wounds What was the new life lesson Buck learned from John Thornton? A genuine passionate love Explain how Buck showed his love for John Thornton. Buck would bite down on John Thornton's hand. He would bite down just hard enough to leave an impression in his hand. Who were John Thornton's partners? Hans and Pete How did Buck save John Thornton's life? He jumped into the river to save him. What condition was Buck in after saving John Thornton? He had 3 broken ribs. What was the bet at the saloon? Buck could pull 1, 000 lbs of flour for 100 yards. eloquent well spokennudgeto push gently reverently respectfully feigned to pretend transient temporary aroused awakened; stirred uptender foot beginner contagion the spreading of disease conjuration calling up a spirit Why did John Thornton's friends leave him beside the river? frozen feet Why did Buck follow Thornton everywhere? fear of losing him What amazing thing did Buck do for Thornton in chapter 6? pulled a 1000 pound sled 100 yards Why did Buck do EVERYTHING Thornton asked him to do?

Total trust and love for him. ON THE CALL OF THE WILD CHAPTER 6
SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13.90/PAGE Order Now