An Inspector Call is a play written by J. B Priestley in year 1945 however the show was produced on October 21, 1947. The play takes place in 1912 in high classes of Britain. The action of the play occurs in an English high class family where there's an engagement between MR Birling's daughter, Sheila and Gerald and then suddenly an inspector interrupted and report a girl named Eva Smith committed suicide has a connection with the family after the attitude of MR Birling has changed shown up as selfish. The theme highlights, injustice, guilt, power, social class and responsibility. The author portrays the attitude of MR Birling through his behavior to the family, social class and inspector. The author, J.

B Priestley, highlights the attitude of MR Birling through his different behavior to his family member. When MR Birling had a confidential conversation between Gerald about getting knighthood and then suddenly Eric interrupted and came in, the conversation was stopped and shows that MR Birling doesn't trust his own son. When the confidential conversation between Gerald was going on, MR Birling said " There's a fair chance that I might find my way into the next Honor List.

Just a knighthood, of course" shows that he trust Gerald more than his son Eric. The attitude towards Sheila from MR Birling was comparing to others, he treats her daughter more like a younger person more than others as when Sheila had a look at the picture that were produced by the inspector google and then she ran out, MR Birling was questioning inspector google " Why the devil do you want to upsetting the child like that" through the word child, MR Birling is treating her more like a younger person comparing to others.

Through all the attitudes from MR Birling, he is more towards a girl and doesn't trust his son more than Gerald.

The author, JB Priestley, highlights the attitude of MR Birling through his behavior to the social class. When MR Birling says " If you don't come down sharply on some of these people, they'd soon be asking for the earth" shows that he is selfish to the society and doesn't care others situation and only care his own advantages.
