Lansing, Michigan 48933 (hereby known as ‘ Solicitors’)

And

Lester Milton

1. Our responsibility

Our responsibility shall include necessary investigation and prosecution, if necessary, of all claims against Tia Laundry and any other party that might have contributed to the slip and fall that occurred on Lester’s stairs on May 30, 2006.

2. Amount of contingency fee

The contingency fee amounts to a third of any derived gains from the claim. This applies regardless of whether any arising case is informally settled or prosecuted. The fees will also include any incurred costs by solicitors in their course of the contract’s obligations. Such may be filing fees, court reporter fees, expert witness fees, travel fees, long distance calls, and coping costs that shall be deducted before the formal fee claim.

3. Consequences of termination of the contract

Lester retains the right to terminate the contract at anytime. In such a case, it will have to pay any outstanding fee until the time of termination of the contract.

4. Solicitors’ authority

The solicitor shall represent Lester in all aspect of the case.

5. Motions arising during the agreement period

Any further representation by the solicitors due to cross claim or counter
