The paper " Praise Belongs to God, Lord of the Worlds" is an exceptional example of an essay on religion and theology.

Hadith of Muhammed:

“ Whoever says “ Subhanaka Allahumma wa bihamdika, ash-hadu an laa ilaha illa anta, astaghfiruka wa atubu ilaika” - ‘(O Allah, You are free from every imperfection; praise be to You. I testify that there is no true god except You; I ask Your Pardon and turn to You in repentance)’ in a gathering of remembrance, it will be like a seal to stamp it (the remembrance) with, and he who says it in a gathering of vain talk, it will be an expiation for it (the vain talk). [Nasaa’i]” (Sheik)

The Islam belief of Allah requires Muslims to praise Allah and glorify Him only. Both the Quran verse and the Hadith saying of Muhammed teaches a man to acknowledge Allah as the One true God, perfect in every sense, and creator of all the earth. This acknowledgment is very significant to believers as this is an act of showing humility before God who owns everything. As man is created by Allah, it is but just right for a man to bend down on their knees and acknowledge who created him, and that is God or Allah. This is one of the most vital foundations in faith. It is important for a man to bow down before God and acknowledge his nothingness. And after that, all his requested supplications can be granted by the One Allah, who is more than able to provide.
