

Mayflower – characters

william Bradford- governor of Plymouth Colony after John Carver dies
- writes " Of Plymouth Plantation" John Robinson- pastor and leader of the English Separatists in Leiden before they leave for America Elder William Brewster- Pilgrim's leading lay minister John Carver- first governor of Plymouth Colony Robert Cushman- Helped organize voyage to America Thomas Weston- leading adventurer from London Christopher Jones- Mayflower's master Robert Coppin- Christopher Jones's mate and pilot Captain Miles Standish- wife Rose
- Pilgrim's leading military officer Christopher Martin- Mayflower's governor
- original purchasing agent Stephen Hopkins- Stranger who may have been to Jamestown before boarding the Mayflower Edward Winslow- leading Pilgrim diplomat who also served as a governor John Howland- indentured servant who eventually became a leading citizen of the colony John Billington- head of what Bradford called the " profanest family"
- sons John and Francis Thomas Morton- leader of Merrymount John Sanders- leader of Wessagussett settlement Phineas Pratt- another leader of the Wessagussett settlement John Hamden- English gentleman who spent winter of 1623 with the Pilgrims Massasoit- Pokanoket sachem Canonicus- Narragansett sachem Squanto- Pilgrim's interpreter, originally from Patuxet Epenow- sachem from Martha's Vineyard Samoset- sachem from Pemaquid Point, Maine Passaconaway- sachem and powwow from Merrimack River in New Hampshire Aspinet- Nauset sachem Canacum- Manomet sachem Lyanough- Cummaquid sachem Corbitant- Mattapoissett sachem Hobbamock- Pokanoket sachem Obtakiest- Massachusetts sachem Pecksuot- Massachusetts sachem Uncas- Mohegan sachem
- pledged loyalty to Puritans during Pequot War Wituwamat- Massachusetts

warrior Miantonomi- Narragansett sachem
Thomas Prentice- Plymouth governor
Thomas Willett- founder of Wampanoag and friend of Alexander
Major William Bradford Jr- William Bradford's son
John Miles- Swansea minister whose house became Miles Garrison
James Cudworth- army commander from Scituate
Benjamin Church- carpenter and leading captain during King Philip's war
Alice Church- Ben Church's wife
Josiah Winslow- son of Edward

- first governor of Plymouth born in the new world
Samuel Mosely- leading captain during King Phillip's War

- known for his hatred of Indians
Captain Rodger Goulding- mariner who rescued Church's men at the Pease Field Fight and was present at the death of Phillip
Captain Thomas Lathrop- leader at Bloody Brook
Major Robert Treat- led Connecticut forces at Green Swamp Fight
John Elliot- leading Puritan missionary to the Praying Indians
Captain Daniel Gookin- superintendent to Praying Indians
Major Samuel Appleton- commander of Massachusetts forces
John Gorham- led Plymouth forces with William Bradford at Great Swamp Fight
Captain Samuel Wadsworth- led rescue of Lancaster
Mary Rowlandson- captured by Indians at Lancaster
Captain Michael Pierce- killed with most of his men at Blackstone River
Captain George Denison- led Connecticut force with Mohegans, Pequots, Niantics, that captured Canonchet
John Hoar- negotiated the ransom and release of Mary Rowlandson
Captain William Turner- led attack on Indians at Connecticut
Pastor John Cotton- Plymouth minister
John Leverett- Massachusetts governor
Wamsutta/Alexander- Massasoit's oldest son
Weetamoo- Alexander's wife, female Pocasset sachem
Metacom/Phillip- Alexander's younger brother " King Philip"
Tuspaquin- Amie's husband

- the "Black sachem of Nemasket" John Sassamon- interpreter for Alexander and Philip
- one of John Eliot's pupils Awashonks- son Peter; female Sakonnet sachem Tobias- one of Philip's senior counselors
- accused of murdering John Sassamon Totoscon- sachem for Buzzard's Bay
- attacked Dartmouth and Clark's garrison Nimrod- one of Philip's leading warriors Cananchet- Narragansett sachem Quinnapin- Narragansett sachem
- Weetamoo's husband during King Philip's War
- Mary Rowlandson's master Annawon- Philip's principal captain Job Kattenanit- Praying Indian who became a spy for the English Sagamore Sam-Nipmuck sachem
- bargains with English over the ransom of Mary Rowlandson ONMAYFLOWER
- CHARACTERS SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13.90/PAGE Order Now