

End of quiz chapter 3

Which is NOT true about the Internet? It was developed as an additional means of commerce

What do you need to read, send, and organize e-mail from any computer? A Web-based e-mail account

Which is NOT an example of social networking? E-mail

Which of the following is NOT a characteristic of a blog? Blogs are private and require password access

Which of the following is true about plug-ins? Plug-ins are necessary for viewing most Web graphics

What feature is a list of pages you've visited within a Web site? Breadcrumb trail

Which is NOT part of a search engine? Subject directory

When using the Internet for research, you: Should evaluate sites for bias and relevance

Which of the following is not an Internet protocol? ARPNET

EBay and Craigslist are examples of what kind of electronic commerce? C2C [consumer to consumer]

The information in e-mail is no more private than a postcard. True

A search engine that searches other search engines is called a SuperSearch engine. False

A green shaded address bar on a Web site indicates that the Web site is secure. True

Each time you connect to the Internet, your computer is assigned the same IP address. False

In the Web address www. facebook. com, facebook is the top-level domain. False

ONEND OF QUIZ CHAPTER 3 SPECIFICALLY FOR YOUFOR ONLY$13.

90/PAGEOrder Now