In Exodus we know that Moses is the one who took the two stone tablets up to the top of Mount Sinai. These two tablets were soon to be known as the Law. While Moses was there he witnessed that God is the one who wrote the Ten Commandments on the two stone tablets. This took some time, so while Moses was gone the Israelites decided that something had become of Moses and that they were going to have their own gods, it was that of a golden calf and was known to be an idol. "While Moses was on Mount Sinai the people of Israel had rejected the only God they knew, until now. They had turned to worshipping the golden calf as their god.

"1 It was under this kind of declaration, "These are your gods. O Israel, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" (Exod 32: 8) This act of the Israelites had angered Moses when he returned, he threw down the tablets and broke them. The Lord told Moses to, "Cut two more tablets of stone like the first ones and I will write on them like the first ones that you broke." 2 These stone tablets were later known as the covenant text (Exod 34: 10-26). Victor Hamilton makes it clear the importance of the commandment and that it was the Covenant of Sinai.

This is because this is "the first time that Moses ascends Sinai, that God spoke to Moses. Hamilton also referred the Commandment as "ten words" which is Hebrew and can be found in (Deut 4: 13, 10: 4; Exod 34: 28)." 3 I was also said that the Catholics and Lutherans are with in Commandment one and two. They believed that it was protecting the Lord. In commandment three it was said to be the tradition of the Jews and the Protestants. While the rest of the commandment was to be in difference between all four groups.

However, Hamilton breaks it down very well according to the Bible. “

Hamilton says, that the first four Commandments are related to the relationship that we are to have with God. The last six Commandments are how we should act towards other people, which is our relationship with others.” 4
