

Borders between countries should be banned essay

ASSIGN
BUSTER

From the beginning of human history people have been moved from place to another searching for new place for life. Now days, border between countries have been controlled. However, There are a lot of debate in media and journals about, should border between countries opened or not? It is an important question because it concerns the world and governmental together. Some people say that border should not be controlled, another people are against this idea. This essay will try to explain why border between countries should be banned.

One argument say, opening border between countries will make threats for nationhood. They believe that without border the security in country will be under threat and there will be conflict. In addition opening border will lead to the great movement of people from poor countries and, that make more concern for development countries like USA and, European Union. This movement will make instability in rich countries. However, opening border between countries has much benefit.

Increasing globalization necessitates countries to open their border for the trade, technology, tourism, and, to have more labour. Furthermore, opening border lead toward unify economics, currencies, technology, and, securities. For example, European Union is one of the most power area in the world because, it has free zone. In conclusion, people have always moved from place to another in order to have convenient life. Also countries should make this movement more easy because, it due a benefit to the countries from many aspects. Therefore, border between countries should be banned.