The president of France Emmanuel Macron recently arrived in Saudi Arabia to ease the tension in the region. Currently there is some sort of cold war among states of Saudi, Iran and Lebanon.

The government of Iran and world powers recently signed an agreement on Nuclear weapons. Iran agreed to stop its Nuclear production and world powers agreed to release Iran from economic sanctions. This is needed for Iran and public is much happier regarding this decision because Iran is currently suffering of many financial issues. But however President Trump stated that this agreement is unfair and costly for them. At the same time president Trump has been criticized by the world power regarding his statement. Because global security is important than financial gains. President Macron's visit to the middle east is mainly based on protecting the current agreement. In an interview president Macron stated that he had a discussion with president Trump on Iran deal and he had explained him the importance of keeping up with the current agreement.

Most of political critics point out the president Macron's intervention is required to limit the tension in the middle east. President Macron elected as the president of France earlier this year with election against National Fronts Marine Le Pen. Le Pen is the Far-Right Nationalist leader of France and before the election most of the political scientist predicted that she will win the election. Macron's center-Right policies has been criticized by Le Pen throughout the election campaign. But however Macron got a vote of 66% and defeated the populist leader Le Pen. Comparing with Le Pen who is aggressive Macron is Cool and Composed character. Recently in an interview he stated that we must first look for negotiations rather than getting in to a conflict.

At the same time he mentioned that US president should be more preoccupied dealing with North Korean Issue. Considering the above facts we can clearly identify that Emmanuel Macron had already become an influential leader in the world. Regarding the visit to Saudi Arabia what we can predict is that his influence will bring a certain relief to the tension building up in the Middle East region.
