Delaying of the flights is a very common phenomenon. And when such a thing happens, you are stuck in an impossible situation. However, the air transfer companies are very reliable because they study your flight details every few hours to see when you will arrive. This way, they can come to get you no matter how early or late your flight is. You will not be stranded on the airport looking for another airport cab or taxi service. The company you hire will send their representatives the minute you land and they will swirl you off to your destination in no time. This comes as a great relief to the people who are flying in at late timings because it is difficult to get a cab at odd hours of the night.
