According to Doctor Muhammad Ali Hassan (2010) the responsible for baby dumping are also done by young women who are primary afraid of facing their family judgement.

3. 0 LITERATURE REVIEW

In this modern era, baby dumping is one of the main social issues that is happening rapidly day by day. This case appears every day in newspapers, magazine and on social network as well. We should appreciate and respect the value of a soul before involve in this kind of embarrassing behaviour. There are so many causes and effects for the baby dumping issue arise in our society.

3. 1 CAUSES

There are 5 causes of baby dumping. These include family break up, lack of knowledge, poverty and rape.

3. 1. 1 FAMILY BREAK UP

First of all, family break up lead the teenagers to involve in this irresponsible case. A healthy family plays an important role in a teenager's life. The abruptly change in the families environment is not something easy to adapt in their mind. So, they will find for a new relationship that can occupy their loneliness and feelings without thinking about the consequences as well. Furthermore, this even can become worst if their parents decided for a divorce where their kids haven't yet ready to face any of the situations in terms of love and protection. From this point, they may tend to find the alternative way to get all what they have lost. Foreexample, newrelationship, happiness and freedom. This is what makes them to have a sexual relationship with an opposite gender at any random hotel rooms and even at lonely places.

3. 1. 2 LACK OF KNOWLEDGE

Another factor contributing to the increasing of baby dumping cases is lack of knowledge either in moral side or religious side. Religious teaches people the correct path way of life. Religion assures a greater reward in the afterlife to worldly failures than to successful life. This kind of assurance encourages members to continue their life in the correct way. So, religious is one of the best medicines to overcome all this kind of social issues because it help the people to keep their heart and mind strong. On the other hand, moral values are the guiding principles which held in high esteem by a particular society. Moral values are important in teenagers life because it consume a lot of standard of behaviour where going to lead the new generation into high level. They should have proper knowledge in moral side to make their self-confident and continue their life in correct way and also to avoid them influence by the society.

3. 1. 3 POVERTY

Nevertheless, poverty also another factor that causes baby dumping scenario in this society. Poor society welfare system on who are not capable in financial of taking care of child is more favour to dump the baby. This frequently occurred on adolescence in initial period to start the relationship or intend to have marriage. Political condition such as difficulty in adoption proceedings, may also contribute to baby dumping. Furthermore, the responsible society has failed to convince the people and make them realize the important to save the precious life of babies before it become plague in our community. Societies with strong social structures and liberal adoption laws tend to have lower rates of baby dumping.

3. 1. 3 RAPE

Furthermore, rape also another factor that causes baby dumping. Moreover, rape case can be classified more baffling in this society because it still happening in this millennium century. In some cases it happen among the family descent or it may happen molestation force by others as nowadays we read in the front of news. The person who we trust more will betray us in disgraceful manner. The victim are not willing to do that so, consequently causing them not to welcome the baby in their pregnancy. After become pregnancy they will be conducive to diminish the baby and claim it as blessedness child. So, the hatred to the culprit interprets to risk the baby life by tendency to abandon it somewhere out of their sign.

Psychologists believe the force by closest members or family can cause the drastic change of action and disturbing the human morality thinking. The initial instinct are totally object to their compel action. As a mother it is hard to accept and if they are genuinely intend to act such that cruel activity to dump baby after bring it in their pregnancy. The small agitation and compulsion from the people around them distract or convince them to finish the life of innocent baby in such irritation mannerism. For example, a parent force their kid to abortion the baby, afraid of the slander by the villager and their community surround.

In a nutshell, we should overcome this social issue before it become worst in our society. Every individual play an important role to avoid these causes in order to live happily in future and the government as well.

3. 2 EFFECTS

Baby dumping in Malaysia today have been affected and the greatest impact on society. The effects of baby dumping can be classified into several parts such as the impact of the baby, the mother who gave birth, the family is involved in baby dumping, the impact on society and the state.

3. 2. 1 BABY

Loss of consequence of human nature in itself, babies were being victimized and their impacts is not all babies can identify their biological parents. These babies are also bearing the title of an illegitimate child throughout their life even they are become victims the situation in this matter. Furthermore, these babies are still young and did not understand what was happening to them. What's worse are they dumped in remote areas and away from public view, that cause babies who have died innocent.

3. 2. 2 MOTHER OF THESE BABY

The second effect is the impact on mothers. This is because, when mothers give birth, they are not in a comfortable in the situation. Without preparation, the mother will have an infection, injury during childbirth, and also lost a lot of blood. The majority of them have children without the help of the hospital and the other because of shame. In addition, the baby's mother will also having a problem in themselves, such as depression, loss of self-confidence, and emotional problems. This is a consequence of their own actions, which is absolutely wrong in law, religion, and country.

3. 2. 3 FAMILY

The consequences of baby dumping also affect the baby's mother's family. This is because parents would be ashamed of having children outside of marriage childbirth. What are worrying is the neighbours around them, certainly hold a negative perspective to their family. This problem also will make the problem of divorce. Parents who is involved with making unconscionable will blame themselves for not good at educate and giving birth to age children who had to deal with this matter.

3. 2. 4 SOCIETY

The fourth effect is the effect on society. Baby dumping cases occurred has been affect the image of the surrounding communities. They certainly be embarrassed and disappointed with what happened. Definitely teenagers blamed in this case because usually, the largest group of teenagers involved in these activities. Society has to accept the consequences resulting from this immoral activities and indirectly gave rise to the perception of outsiders about the credibility of the local community in preventing cases like this continues.

3. 2. 5 STATE

Cannot be denied this baby dumping a huge impact on the country. Among the impression that the economy is definitely happening is difficult to develop due to the existence of social problems. Furthermore, government spending has increased to accommodate the baby is placed in social welfare homes. This is because babies have been found are usually placed in welfare homes as temporary housing community. At the same time, the baby's parents will be searched and if not found, the house is certainly a permanent to them. These kinds of things is definitely a burden to the government and related parties in financial terms.

4. 0 SOLUTION

An average of 100 babies are abandoned a year, based on reports filed with the police. Babies dumped in churches, mosques, temples, toilet bowls, rubbish dumps and abandoned. Mostly, babies are dumped by unwed mothers and under-aged girls who are young, naive, immature and frightened. The pregnant girls find themselves in a difficult situation. Most dump the babies for fear of being disowned by their families. Steps have to be taken to remedy this situation. So in this blog we will discuss about this issue, including research objective and research question. What the solution of the problem? Many ways we can try to solve the problem.

4. 1 PARENTS

The first solution is more attention from their parents. This is because the parents must give more attention with their children. The knowledge about the social must be explain to their children so that the children can know the overview of the social life. The parents must have responsibilities on the children. They must check in on them at events, lessons, and sport activities and so on. The parents must tell them if they make mistakes and say to them that however something bad happens to them. The parents must give some explanations about the sex. That means parents must inform the negative impact doing extra marital sex. Furthermore, for Islamic religion, parents must inform extra-marital and this way can help this problem reduced.

4. 2 SCHOOL AND TEACHER

The second solution trough via school and teacher. Sex education must have at school. This is because sex education is the key to solve this problem. Sex education is not only about the mechanics of sex but also learning how to respect our bodies and another part is needed to encourage responsibilities sexual behaviour and avoid unwanted pregnancies that causes baby dumping. Parents cannot give only the responsible to the teacher and school cause parents also the important way to solve the problem.

4. 3 GOVERNMENT

The third solution is precautions by government. We all know, we all know, dumping are crimes, but did' not all of us know that these acts are also cries for help. Sometimes they dump their baby because they may feel that there is no one they can turn to for help. But we must show that communities can take steps to prevent baby dumping by giving mothers support and reassurance. And let they know place such as children's care centres is the better place to turn for their problem, without take unmoral way like dumping their baby. The government has to exterminate the pornographic material from internet and electronic multimedia. This is because the teenagers are now free to access any websites without limits., government have established ' safe house' in public areas such as church, police station, fire station and other public areas where women can bring their unwanted children and put in the basket provided. This is a better precautionary step rather than throwing the babies in the receptacles. The community have to execute their responsibility especially friends and neighbourhood. They have to support them and gave them strength and confidence to continue their life

5. 0 CONCLUSION

To conclude the cases about baby dumping is many way to solve the problem , but sometimes we must know why the problem come trough to cases , many causes like such as family break up , lack of knowledge either in moral side or religions side , poverty and raped.
