

30+ questions for survey on the campaign research paper samples

Education, Sustainability

- Have you ever heard of the department of sustainability?
- Are you a member of the department of sustainability?
- Did you find out about the department on your first day on campus?
- If the answer is no in no. 3 how have you come to know about it?
- Do you know any activities carried out in the above department?
- Which activities do you participate in?
- Have you referred any of your friends to the department?
- How frequently do you attend meetings?
- Do you find them helpful?
- Would you suggest improvements towards the department?
- What? Suggestions would you make regarding campus outreach opportunities?
- Was the issue addressed to your satisfaction?
- How long did you wait for your suggestion to be implemented?
- How would you rate the staff in that department on a scale of 1 to 10?
- Where the materials provided to you useful when you joined?
- Does the semester schedule, go hand in hand with the time set?
- Through this initiative, has your communication skills grown?
- How do you find volunteer work?
- If it were up to you, would you rather you get extra credit for this extra-curricular activity?
- Have you visited our social media site?
- Do you have any ideas on how we can attract traffic to our site?
- For the longest time you have been a member have you seen the positive impact you have made environmentally, agriculturally and in general life?

- How have outreach activities influenced your life and those around you. Please elaborate using examples of past experiences?
- If you were given a choice to change or remain in the 3 groups we have that is agriculture, environmental and life quality would you move?
- Should we have writing contests to generate content for sharing?
- What are the department's strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats as a whole?
- Would you say that our content is rather 'stale'?
- How can we engage students in social media activities?
- Would you be interested in developing content for your group?
- Are the leaders in your group pro-active?
- Should there be an increase in campus outreach activities?
- How would you rate campus outreach activities?
- What can you say is unique with our department compared to others?
- Apart from group work have you attempted any of the activities you have participated in on a personal level?
- How long should content stay on the site before it is replaced?
- When you are done with your studies will you still continue with what you have learned from us?
- What is your most memorable experience?
- Why did it stick with you even after it passed?
- What are good at in respect to (outreach activities, content making or social media) your group that you can say you do better than the others?
- Have you learned anything new that you did not have knowledge of before?

- Who is your role model within the department and why did you choose this individual?
- If you were to decide on the direction of the department, what trajectory would you set for us. Rather, what direction would you have us take?