Support

Looks

She appears to be a very independent woman.

In the video, she walks around with her head up high and talks with great confidence.

Actions

Demanding

And that which rather thou dost fear to do

Than wishest should be undone

And that which rather thou dost fear to do

than wishest should be undone Speech

Strong

She thinks she needs to get her way with everything.

She asks the spirits to fill her head to toe with cruelty, making her less like a woman and more like a man who can commit an evil deed) Thoughts

Suspicious

The raven (a bird that represents death) himself is hoarse. The raven was

Looks

Timid

When Lady Macbeth is talking to him, she keeps walking around him and touching him. He looks nervous or afraid. Actions

Quiet

He doesn't say or do much around Lady Macbeth. I think he is just trying to keep her happy, so that things don't escalate. " My dearest love, Duncan comes her tonight." " And when goes hence?" " To-morrow,- as he purposes." My dearest love, Duncan comes here tonight.

LADY

MACBETH.

And when goes hence(When does he leave)?

MACBETH.

To-morrow,—as he purposes

Speech

Polite

I know that most men were polite to their women back in this times, but he calls Lady Macbeth " My dearest love." It just goes to show he truly values her and wants her to know he cares. Thoughts

Confused

He's not exactly sure what the witches meant when they were talking to him

Interactions

Simple

He keeps his conversations with Lady Macbeth short and sweet. He doesn't try to upset her in any way. He lets her do most of the talking and intimidating.
