

Chunnel project

Business, Risk Management

Historical background, overall objectives, political climate, and pre-feasibility studies. 2-Development-Overall planning, feasibility studies, financing, and conceptual design, 3-Implementation-Detail design, construction, installation, testing, and commissioning. 4-Closeout-Reflection on overall performance, settlement of claims, financial status, and post-project evaluation. 1974- Initial tunnel ideas gather but abandoned. 1978-British & French discussions resumed. 83-French & British banks & contractors propose tunnel scheme. 1984-British and French agree to common safety, environmental, and security concerns. 1. Please complete your evaluation of project management during this phase, using the following grid: Project Management Area Closeout Phase Scope Management Time Management Cost Management Quality Management HR Management Communication Management Risk Management Procurement Management Integration Management 2.

Please highlight the major areas of strength in the management of this phase of the project: Scope Management 2 Communication Management 2.

Please highlight the major areas of strength in the management of this phase of the project using the following grid: Project Management Area Time Management 3 Quality Management 4 HR Management 2 Communication Management 2 Risk Management 2 Integration Management 3 Closeout

Phase the project: 1. Please complete your evaluation of project management during this phase, using the following grid: Project Management Area Closeout Phase