

Inside bitcoins tel aviv rescheduled

ASSIGN BUSTER

After postponing the Tel Aviv event this past July, Inside Bitcoins announces the new conference dates: October 20-21, 2014.

Inside Bitcoins Conference and Expo will be making its debut in Israel this fall, where thought leaders, business visionaries and virtual currency experts will converge to lead a discussion on the first digital, decentralized, peer-to-peer based global currency.

Whether you are a venture capitalist, lawyer, technologist, or entrepreneur, the conference agenda offers a diverse and exciting range of topics that shed light on the implications of bitcoin, along with predictions on the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead.

Speakers, which include the likes of Meni Rosenfeld, Chairman of the Israeli Bitcoin Association; Dr. Edward Offenbacher, Director of Monetary Division of the Bank of Israel; and Vitalik Buterin, Co-Founder of Bitcoin Magazine and Ethereum, will be exploring topics such as cybersecurity, economics, regulation, mining, startups, academics and more.
