What was the problem with Fudge's new bed? He kept falling out of it. What would Mom, Fudge, and Peter do to make a day out of going to the dentist? They would go out for lunch and buy new shoes. What did Peter usually do on Saturday mornings? He usually cleaned the turtle bowl on Saturday mornings? What burned Peter up about how people treated Fudge? It upset Peter that people treated Fudge like he was so special just because he was little. What did the nurse want Peter to do? She wanted him to help the dentist with Fudge. What did Peter do to help the dentist? He opened his mouth so that Fudge would open his mouth. Why did Peter like Mr. Berman? He made buying shoes fun. How did Mr. Berman react to the news about Fudge's teeth being missing? He gave the boys lollipops. Why was Mother embarrassed when Peter had his shoes off? He had a hole in his sock. What kind of shoes did Fudge want? He wanted shoes like Peter. What trick was played on Fudge? Peter tried on saddle shoes so that Fudge would try his own too. Why did Peter laugh when at Hamburger Heaven? He laughed when Fudge dumped the peas over himself. On the ride home, what did Peter decide? He decided he would never spend a day with Fudge again. How did Fudge react when Mr. Berman brought out the saddle shoes? He kicked and threw a fit. ONTALES OF A FOURTH GRADE NOTHING - CHAPTER 6
