

Unit 2 grammar

A yes-no question requires what type of answer? yes and no answers What's an example of a yes/no question? Are you Deaf? ONUNIT 2 GRAMMAR SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13. 90/PAGE Order Now What 3 non-manual markers do you use to ask a yes-no question? 1) Raise eyebrows
2) Lean forward
3) Hold last sign When responding " yes" to a yes-no question, what is it important that you do with your head? nod When responding " no" to a yes-no question, what is it important that you do? shake your head After you have given a negative response, what should you give? Give correct information Speaking in a monotone voice is the equivalent to answering a yes-no questions without what? Non-manual markers What is active listening also known as? Feedback What type of feedback must you give the signer to show that you are understanding and are interested in what is being said? Gentle nods, brief signs, and facial expressions In the absence of feedback, what might the signer assume? That you don't understand How can you make sure your active listening is visual? Acknowledging information as your process it through non-manual markers and brief signs What type of information should you exchange upon meeting a Deaf person? 1) First and last names
2) Whether you are Deaf/hearing
3) If you are hearing, where you learn ASL, who your teacher is, why are you learning
4) If you are Deaf, where you grew up, did you go to a Deaf school and for how long If you are hearing, what type of information might a Deaf person ask you? 1) Where you are learning ASL
2) Whether or not your ASL teacher is Deaf

- 3) First and last name of your teacher
- 4) Why you are learning ASLIf you are Deaf/hard-of-hearing, what type of information might a Deaf person ask you?
 - 1) Where you grew up
 - 2) If you went to a Deaf school
 - 3) How many years you were at the Deaf school
 - 4) Whether or not you went to Gallaudet
 - 5) If yes, which classHow do you know which hand is your dominant hand? If you are right-handed, your right hand is dominant; if left-handed, your left hand is dominantIf you are ambidextrous, can you switch off which hand you sign with, or must you choose one? Choose one hand to be your dominant hand and be consistentFor one-handed signs, which hand must you always use? Dominant handWhat is the definition of a two-handed symmetrical sign? Both your dominant and non-dominant hands are used in symmetrical movementsWhat's an example of a two-handed symmetrical sign? TEACHER, LANGUAGEFor two-handed non-symmetrical signs, which hand moves? Which hand stays stationary?
 - 1) Dominant hand moves
 - 2) Non-dominant hand stays stationaryWhat is an example of a two-handed non-symmetrical sign? YEAR, READWhat is Gallaudet University? Where is it located? It is the only liberal arts university in the world for the Deaf and is located in Washington, DCTo signal transitions in a story, what must you do with your eyebrows? Raise themRegina Olson HughesThe most renowned Deaf scientific illustratorHow do you produce symmetrical shapes? Both hands simultaneously trace both sides of the shapeHow do you produce asymmetrical/circular/linear shapes? Non-dominant hand is used as a reference point and dominant hand traces the shapeWhat is signer's perspective? When you see the signs through the signer's eyes (take their point of view) When identifying someone who is visible to you and the listener, what opening sign must you use? SEE When describing a person, you give the gender first, then one or more of what? Appearance, body position, or action When describing a person, you must keep your eyebrows raised throughout the whole description until your listener does what? Confirms that they know who you are talking about If you have no choice but to walk through a signing environment, how must you pass through? Quickly so the signer's won't be interrupted Why do you not want to hunch down or wait to be acknowledged by the signers when passing through? It disrupts their exchange because it's more visibly distracting When your path is too narrow to pass between several groups of signers, what is it customary to do? Press someone's shoulder or upper back Why do you want to avoid tapping someone when trying to pass by a person? It prompts the person to turn toward you, breaking their conversation If someone is blocking your view in a conversation, how can you ask them to move? By pressing their shoulder in the direction that would clear your view To ask for a sign you've forgotten or don't know, what phrase should you use? _____ whq

SIGN WHAT In addition to the phrase above, what are 5 different strategies you can use to ask for a sign? 1) Point to the object

2) Draw the object

3) List items in the same category

4) Use opposites

5) Describe or act out Why doesn't fingerspelling guarantee you will get the correct ASL sign? Because ASL and English are different languages Who signs the diplomas at Gallaudet University? President of US What year was

Gallaudet University established? 1864
Regina Olson Hughes was the only
Deaf artist to have a solo exhibition at where? Smithsonian Institution