An example from document B is 100,000 Alexandrian men poured their sweat and blood for twenty years... ". It says that the men were 'Alexandrian', which some would infer slaves. Secondly, in document C it says that there were no slaves at all working on the Great Pyramids of Giza. In the document it specifically states that workers were paid and had honorable burials. Herodotus said " No way they would be buried so honorably if they were slaves". Thirdly, from document D it says gangs built the pyramids.

Some archaeologists believe this because on the stones above the king chamber it would have a crouched , an oval hieroglyphic used for names of Kings and Queens, and then a hieroglyphic of a gang name in red paint. Finally, document E is not sure whether slaves were used or not. They don't know because they don't know how many people worked on the pyramids. They all don't know if the slaves were even buried or just left to rot.
