Village Hotels

After working hard in the weekdays every person wants to relax in weekends at a heavenly place. Though we can't go to heaven the corporate and real estate world brought the heaven to earth in the form of hotels, resorts, health clubs, etc. One of these is a village hotel. There are many village hotels around the world. Lets look at the facilities they provide for their customers.

Individuals

These are the people who work hard the whole week and come to hotels to relax and leave the hotel afresh. The hotel fares are affordable. Hotels in places like Cardiff offer a single room for 50 euros. Since it has beaches everyone likes to visit these hotels.

Couples

The new married couples or the one who wants to enjoy their relationship frequents these village hotels. They are source of primary income for the village hotels. They provide all facilities and offers discounts that makes the hotel fares reasonable. Hawaiian hotels are very famous for couples. They provide everything from good food to excellent service and guide the tourists regarding historical places.

Groups

Village hotels provide special facilities for businessmen. They provide them conference halls, auditorium, dining halls, etc. Wedding and grand parties are one of the important sources of income. Hotels provide all the facilities needed. The fares depend on number of people coming to the party or space available in the hotel.

Families

Village hotels have to make special arrangements in summer and on Christmas. During summer most of the people want to spend time with their families. Since summer vacations would be declared children would love to visit new places. The resorts offer special discounts for them. Places like Thailand, Goa, Hawaii, etc., are the most preferred village hotels.

Different age group

Everyone has their own taste and prefers them very much. Children love to play around, old one hangs around pubs, bars and restaurants, couples love to visit romantic places like beaches and teenagers love hang around discotheques and participate in adventurous sports. Austrian tourism ministry provides all facilities for skiing.

Different culture

One of the important agenda of hotels is to respect people from different cultures. Special care is taken to meet the customs of the customers.

Specific needs

All the hotels provide special facilities like wheel chair, elevators, and medical staff for the disabled customers and for them who are suffering from different ailments.
