Theories on why social problems occur

Unemployment

social problems exist when people think they are. If there is no perception of a particular social problem as problematic, then it does not exist.

Nevertheless, the issue of social problems is not problematic itself.

4 Proposed Solutions to Help Fix the Philippines

1. Ending Poverty and Achieving Sustainable Economic Growth

Tourism Development. Ensuring Access to Quality Education and Health Services for All.-

2. Ending Pervasive Corruption; Modernizing the Justice System 3. Achieving Lasting Peace; Ending Armed Conflict

4. Reshaping our Nation through Effective Public Leadership and Active Citizenship People’s Participation in Governance

“ Poverty does not create our social problems; our social problems create our poverty.” -Marco Rubio

Each of these problems is met with the same “ solution”—more government. And more government means more taxes, more inflation, and more controls on the private sector.
