

Government

ASSIGN BUSTER

Constitution body of fundamental laws setting out the principals, structures, and processes of government

Executive power Power to make law and frame public policies

Judicial power the power to interpret laws, determine their meaning, and settle disputes

Confederation Independent states that agree to form Virginia plan called for representation in congress by population or by the amount of money representative government idea that gov should not serve the will of the people Connecticut compromise agreement that in congress, states be represented equally in the senate and population

Magna Carta first English charter of liberties which included such fundamental rights as trial by jury amendment way to change the constitution rule of law government and its officers must obey the Article one of the 7 numbered sections of the constitution executive agreement carries same force of law as treaty bill of rights first ten amendments formal amendment changes to the written constitution may be made through this process exclusive powers powers exercised solely by the national gov

Block grant federal aid given to states and local governments reserved powers powers held by the states, not granted specifically to national, government division of powers separation of governmental powers between national and the 50 states exclusive power those powers granted in the constitution only to the national government delegated power the national government has three types of among the broad purposes of the united states governemtn spelled out in the preamble to the constitution is the obligation to D. provide for justice and the peoples general welfare the theory underlying modern democracies was displayed to challenge the idea that A. those of royal birth have absolute authority to rule the internet seems especially suited to satisfy which of these needs in a democracy B. to be informed about the many different institutions and policies of the government which of the following statements about sovereign states is not true C. a county or city is considered sovereign because it is subordinate in a democracy the will of the majorityD. cannot be used to deprive rights to a member of a minority group which of the following is among the purpose of government outlined in the preamble to the constitutionD. all of the above which statement about the social contract theory is not true the state is a natural extension of peoples family structure which of the following statements about the internet is false? C. the internet led to widespread on-line voting in the 2000 elections which of the following illustrates the concept of equality of opportunityA. public schools may not exclude students because of their sex or race in the charter colonies, most government matters were handled byD. The colonists which idea is not included in the declaration of independenceB. god gives certain people the right to govern which colony was founded mainly as a place of personal and religious freedomC. Massachusetts which feature did the state constitutions and articles of confederation have in commonC. Principle of popular sovereignty

After the revolutionary war the national governmentA. proved too weak to deal with growing economic and political problems

Which of the following statements about George WashingtonD. it followed Washington's appointment of James Madison as the vp

With the words we the people the constitution establishes its authority on the basis ofA. popular sovereignty

The informal amendmentD. results from the daily experiences of government the presidents cabinet is an example of informal amendment byA. Unwritten custom which best describes concept of limited governmentC. government must operate within certain bounds set by the people the basic constitutional rights of the people were first set out in theC. bill of rights

Which is not true about the use of executive agreementD. it is among the executive powers listed in the article II of con

The bill of rights guarantees all of the following exceptB. the right of women to vote

States must honor the legality of one another's civil laws because ofB. full faith and credit clause

Citizens who commit suicide and flee to new state is calledC. Extradition the con requires the national government to guaranteeD. a republican form of government for every state the basics of federalism A. divides power between a national government and state what label should appear at the place marked by the later C? A. concurrent powers

ON GOVERNMENT SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13.90/PAGE Order Now