

Impacts to serve humanity. knowledge
and research: the Impacts on the family unit(Afghanistan): According to report by United Nations Over 50% of the family members interviewed said that they were hit by a drug-addict from their family. One of the interviewees stated that she advised a drug addicted family member to stop drugs and she got hit hard by him. Impacts on Community(Afghanistan): More than 80% of the Government officials met interviewed claimed that substance use in their community was negatively affecting the work of their associations. The production of a negative atmosphere in the working environment and more propensity for corruption were among the results recorded by those interviewees.

Impacts on Health (Mexico): decrease the work ability of the immune system, which increases probability of infections. In addition to that, it causes nausea and vomiting. Impacts on Economics (United States): What did I learn? I learned the impacts of drug addiction and how dangerous it is. There are many impacts of drug addiction such as economic impacts, health impacts, impacts on community and impacts on family. In addition, before this research I had a general background about drug addiction and its impacts, but now I learned and researched the impacts specifically.

Interdisciplinary approach: Implemented the interdisciplinary research perspective.

The interdisciplinary research is researching from different fields of study. Researched drug addiction impacts from different majors like health, economics, community and family. Please refer to the notes part regarding the implementation of the interdisciplinary approach. Islamic Perspective:

Islamic perspective on research, knowledge and action to serve humanity.

Knowledge and research: the Islamic approach agrees with the interdisciplinary approach in regards to researching and evaluating information from different majors or fields of study to gain different point of views. Action: from an Islamic perspective, the human is god's representative on earth. Goal: being god's representative on earth is beyond fasting, prayer and pilgrimage. It is serving humanity and trying to make the world a better place.

Example: as god representative on earth, I will increase awareness about drug addiction in schools and organizations so people will be aware of this current issue.
