

Dynamic security

ASSIGN BUSTER

This session will help you with; POP Describe the physical, dynamic and procedural security considerations in a custodial environment CEDI Evaluate the need for security and control in a custodial environment Objectives C]III students will be able to; C]State what is meant by the term 'Dynamic Security' C]Discuss the type of information that could be gained from Prison intelligence Comes students will be able to; C]List the benefits of a good prison regime Recap on Physical Security C]What is the difference between an Open or Closed prison in terms of security?

Open is completely locked C]Open allows prisoners out for work/weekend home visits Estate the difference between a Category A prisoner and a Category D prisoner C]Category A - Pose threat to society, maximum security, crimes such as murder, rape or terrorism. Category D - Can be trusted in open conditions and sometime allowed out. Low risk. What does dynamic security mean?

Surveillance - Covert and overt Clientèle's gathering L]Monitoring everyday activities Prison definition of Dynamic Security C] The process of looking for patterns in intelligence, close monitoring of gang members, sharing of information, close relationships with external agencies and partnerships to share intelligence, along with tackling the drug and violence issues.

Areas for concern C]Visits -family or solicitors Commitment of prisoners for work, education, C]Mail - outgoing and incoming Phone calls monitored Group work Consider what information can be gathered from monitoring prisoners in these areas; C]Visits C]Movement of prisoners for work, education, Phone calls Question If you were sent to prison what would be your biggest concern?