and Betsie thankful for Germany where Corrie and Betsie took something to drink. What was the single obsession of the women on the way to Ravensbrück? Beneath the benches where did Corrie hide the sweater, bible, and vitamins? Corrie wasn't touched when the soldiers were patting down the women. What miracle occurred after the shower room? To spread the good news Corrie and Betsie realized why they were in hell. What was the reason for the not necessary medical inspection? What happened on Friday? They were located next to the punishment barracks and fleas and tight space were some of the problems Corrie and Betsie had to deal with in their new barracks. Give thanks in all circumstances. What was Betsie's answer to these problems? She brought prayer and faith to barracks 28 and her faith was becoming her whole life. Explain how Betsie made a difference in barracks 28. Sheer misery: hard backbreaking work of shoveling and pushing. Describe the work at Siemens when they received the new vitamins from Mien. The drops stopped. Describe the miracle concerning the medicine bottle. The guard laughed at Betsie and then she wiped her face. What happened to Betsie one day when she was shoveling? Where they knit there were fleas and the guards wouldn't come in so they prayed. Describe the miracle of the fleas. She lied about her eyes and the doctor told her to come back to the hospital that way she would miss the train. How did Corrie escape transport to the munitions factory? To have a huge home bigger than the Beje and that is where people who were at concentration camps could come to heal. It had statues, inlaid floors and gardens. What was Betsie's dream for after the war? For Corrie to see the body. What does mean arrange for Corrie? She does she goes to heaven where she is the Betsie of Haarlem. What happens to Betsie in chapter 14? What change takes place in her? She was nice she got people to bring a stretcher and bring Betsie to the hospital. What miracle occurred with the snake? Selfishness like standing in the middle so you weren't cold and stealing the vitamins for Betsie and Corrie always made excuses to make her feel better. What was the special temptation of concentration life? Our talents and abilities come from God and she needs to rely on God's strength. What truth did Corrie realize on page 214? Hospital. After Corrie's physical, where is she taken? Stony indifference to others. What was the most fatal disease of the concentration camp? Tine van Veen, who is the first family member Corrie sees after her release? Pickwick, who was in the limo that was to take Corrie to the beje. Made it a place for the feeble-minded. What did Corrie do with the beje once she got home? Betsie, who was Corrie looking for when she got home? Their release on January 1st and they got a huge house in which to house people scarred from concentration camp life to recover and then they got a concentration camp and made it a place for the people who had once operated it. What three visions of Betsie's came true? Watchmaking, underground work, the cat, working with the feeble-minded. What are some the activities that Corrie attempted once she got back to the beje? Those who had betrayed their country. What group had the most trouble being forgiven? Lady who owned the house in which Betsie had vision and made a deal with Corrie that if her son came back she could have it. Who was Mrs. Bierens de Haan? Feeble-minded and Corrie, who was now living in the beje in the hospital. When the chapter ends, where is Betsie? Mein was a young Dutch woman they had met in Vught and she was a prisoner assigned to the hospital and she brought Corrie a newspaper, a slice of bread, and vitamins.
