

Breathing underwater

ASSIGN BUSTER

Nick and his friends attend _____ high school. Key Biscayne. The author of Breathing Underwater is _____. Alex Flinn. The main action of the novel occurs over _____ months, beginning with Nick's arrival at the Miami Dade County Court House and ending with his 17th birthday. 8 to 9. Nick presents as abusive when he is drunk when he and his friends are on vacation in _____, the southernmost point in Florida. Key West. Nick is most envious of Tom's _____. Tom feels immense pressure from his father to become a _____. Family lawyer. Caitlin's mother is best described as a _____ parent. negligent. _____ leads to the anger management class and control his group through basic _____. Mario. Caitlin is partially manipulated through her feelings of feeling of _____ for Nick and his abusive father. Pity. Nick continuously _____ when he plays football. warms the bench. Nick discovers that Caitlin is dating _____ after their breakup. saint O'connor. While he is placed in anger management classes, Nick is more likely to get _____ instead of getting mad. even. Judge Debbie assigns Nick to keep a journal for the purpose of _____. reflection. Caitlin is distraught after Nick insists that she must choose between him and her friend _____. Elsa. The topic that Nick has the most trouble discussing in his group is his _____. family. Nick manipulates Caitlin's low _____ by insulting her singing voice and calling her overweight. self-esteem. For his English class, Nick composes a poem called "_____". team mates. Continuously making attempts to contact and speak to Caitlin is in clear violation of Nick's _____. restraining order. Nick attempts to justify the first time he strikes Caitlin by saying he was _____. trying to control the car. Throughout the novel, Nick and Caitlin debate whether they want to give their _____ to one another; doing so solidifies Caitlin as "the one" in Nick's mind. virginity. Nick is finally able to win Caitlin back after slapping her by _____. buying her expensive gifts Nick's father insist that having a child was a mistake _____ is the first person (besides Caitlin) to notice that Nick is being physically abused by his father. Ms. Higgins throughout their relationship, Nick attempts to win back Caitlin's affection through _____. gifts Nick pledges to himself that, " When i have kids, _____". I will not hit them Nick's first attempt to rekindle friendship between him and Tom is to pass him an envelope filled up with _____. pictures When Nick is finally able to have a substantive conversation with Caitlin at the end of the novel, he is reaching out to her not to win her back, but to tell her _____. he's sorry Nick befriends _____ from his group and learns that he possesses a _____ which he keeps in case he gets in trouble. Leo. gun Leo is a parallel to what Nick could have been if _____. he never sought anger management classes Tom's girlfriend is _____. Liana Nick's father apologies for his hardened personality after Nick _____. stands up to his father Nick discovers that like himself, many other men in the support group violence The Journal entries document Nick's _____ while the " real life" portions of the novel document his " _____". past, present. Caitlin-and everyone else- can tell that the second time Nick hits his girlfriend is intentional due to his _____ and _____. closed fist. open stance ONBREATHING UNDERWATER SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13. 90/PAGE Order Now