Go ahead, shoot me if you want, but I will go find him. — Solomon Vandy V. Guide Questions: 1. What elements of the story produce the effect to you? As I was watching the movie, I felt sad to know that, many people in Africa were killed and their children were caught by the rebels to train them and be rebels too. I also felt sad to see the destruction and the lost of lives cost by war. 2. How does the story begin? The Story started with the family of Solomon at peace, but was <https://assignbuster.com/blood-diamond/> destructured when the rebels arrived. How does the story end? The story ends tragically with the death of Danny Archer, but on the other hand it ended happily for Solomon Vandy because he got his family back and they became rich. 3. Does it have force and beauty of style? For me, it has no force and beauty of style because of its violence. 4. Does it have humor? I don't see any humor in the story because they were at war, and his family is lost. 6. Is there contrast in mood, character, and pace? Yes, The mood of Danny Archer is he always want to be superior while Solomon Vandy is always down to earth. They both have strong character. The pace of Danny Archer is he is a quick thinker in everything that he will do, while for Solomon, He would not think first of what he is doing just to have his son back like what he did when he went to the camp of the rebels and talk to his son.
