

Adam and eve creation

ASSIGN

The Lord God formed man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living being." (Genesis 2: 7).

The Hebrew for man is pronounced aw-dawm, from which Adam is derived.

It's also related to aw-dawm-ah, which means red earth, or red clay - indicating the natural earth elements that composed Adam's body, and the body of every human being since. " The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden [see Where Was The Garden Of Eden?] to work it and take care of it." (Genesis 2: 15). Adam wasn't going to lead an idle life - he had a job right from his first day. For a little while, Adam was the only human being in existence (imagine being the only person on an entire planet!). "

The Lord God said, " It is not good for the man to be all alone." (Genesis 2:

18) " So The Lord God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, He took one of the man's ribs and closed up the place with flesh. Then The Lord God made a woman from the rib. He had taken out of the man, and He brought her to the man. The man said, " This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called 'woman,' for she was taken out of man." For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh." (Genesis 2: 21-

24) Eve's original name, when translated, meant simply " woman," (a " female man") just as Adam was known simply as " man" (a " male man"). He called her " woman," and she called him " man." Later, " Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living." (Genesis 3: 20). Eve is derived from the Hebrew word which means life-giving.

Eventually, besides Cain And Abel, they had Seth (Genesis 5: 3), and numerous other children (Genesis 5: 4). " So God created man in His Own them. God blessed them and said to them, " Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground." Then God said, " I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food. And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air and all the creatures that move on the ground - everything that has the breath of life in it - I give every green plant for food." And it was so. God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning - the sixth day." (Genesis 1: 27-31). (see The Seven Days Of Creation) Adam and Eve had a perfect life in Eden. That is, until That Old Serpent slithered in.
