

Main idea – why i decided on returning to college

ASSIGN BUSTER

First Subtopic - Why am I attending college? Detail - Attending college will give me a better opportunity to pursue a career. Detail - So I can achieve one of my goals that I've been putting off. Detail - A sense of pride and self worthiness, feeling accomplished about a life choice

Second Subtopic - What do I hope to gain from the experience? Detail -I want to gain experience from the classes in order to apply them, to my future career. Detail -I intend to gain my Bachelors Degree in Criminal Justice. Detail -I intend to gain knowledge, and a better paying job, more opportunities.

Third Subtopic - What qualities or skills do I have that make me suited for studying in a technological age? Detail - Due to my career in the military my schedule is never steady and I have unexpected duties. So studying in the technological age allows me to study and attend class on my own time. Detail - I acquired some computer skills throughout high school, so I know that quality will help. Detail - Today is a technological world, so I use technology in my everyday lifestyle.

Fourth Subtopic - What will I do that will make me successful at this? Detail - Now that I am more mature, I can learn from my mistakes and make the right choices. Detail - I decided on a degree that is actually interesting to me, so I won't get bored and give up. Detail - I need to have a plan for what I'm going to do with after the military.

Fifth Subtopic - What things do I feel will be a challenge to me and how will I overcome them? Detail - One of my challenges is that I haven't been non-military classroom since I was 18yrs old and a freshman in college. I feel discouraged since most college students are straight out of high school and still have a fresh in memory. So I know that I will have to try harder and not give up, so I can achieve my goal. Detail - I always procrastinate, so I'm going to have to do it in advance and prioritize my work. Detail - Stress is another challenge. Whether its stress at work, home or even about finances. I will try to overcome stress my making my life more manageable and not let stress interfere with college.

Conclusion - I decided on returning to college so I can finally achieve of my goals that I set for myself a long time ago. This choice will give me a better opportunity to pursue a career.