

English 4b

ASSIGN
BUSTER

publication of Jane Austen's novels Which event did not occur between 1750 and 1800? gentility In order to be socially acceptable, a family needed? increased because of lowered mortality rates from diseases Between 1760 and 1815, England's population? first public railways opened in England What was an important improvement in transportation during this time period? romantics valued emotion and imagination How does Romanticism differ from the Enlightenment? sensibility and imagination Early Romantic writers valued? all of these Robert Burns was? true True or false? The speaker in "Auld Lang Syne" values friendship. the poem demonstrates strong sentiment How does "Auld Lang Syne" reflect early Romantic ideas? influencing the movement for women's rights Mary Wollstonecraft is best known for? society neglects women's education According to the excerpt from A Vindication of the Rights of Women, women are weak mainly because she emphasizes the natural differences between men and women Which of the following is not a way that Wollstonecraft gives credibility to her arguments? women have become weak because society expects them to be attractive and pleasing rather than well educated Which statement is the best summary of Wollstonecraft's thesis? his unusual imagination and interest in the supernatural William Blake was known for transition between thoughts In the poem selections by Blake, the author uses quatrains to hopelessness What is the tone of the poem "London"? harsh of sinful experiences overcome innocence and commitment Which of the following summarizes the symbolic idea of the final stanza in "London"? The poem from songs of innocence is hopeful How does the tone of "The Chimney Sweepers" in Songs of Experience differ from the poem of the same title in Songs of Innocence? true True or false? Both of the poems titled "The

<https://assignbuster.com/english-4b/>

Chimney Sweeper" show how children in British society were affected by poverty. concern for others, simple language, imaginative imagery Which elements of Romanticism are demonstrated in all three of Blake's poems? false True or false? Because Jane Austen married early in life, she understood the necessity of marriage that is portrayed in the novel Pride and Prejudice. finding husbands for her daughters In Pride and Prejudice, Mrs. Bennet is most concerned with women cannot own property and must marry a man with wealth to have a secure future The men in Pride and Prejudice are described by the amount of money they make per year because arrogant At the ball, Mr. Darcy appears to be third person omniscient Pride and Prejudice is told from what point of view? he has a sharp wit that she does not seem to notice In Chapter 1, the dialogue between Mr. and Mrs. Bennet shows that Bingley is good natured and happy about the ball Towards the end of Chapter 3, the conversation between Mr. Darcy and Mr. Bingley reveals that show interest in natural elements Romantic literary works often man is not moved by nature In "The World Is Too Much With Us," the speaker laments the fact that does not stop to think about nature's connection to God In "It Is a Beautiful Evening, Calm and Free," the child emphasizes the rainbow Wordsworth uses enjambment in the first two lines of "My Heart Leaps Up" to describe the daffodils Both Dorothy Wordsworth and her brother describe she is fond of nature and notices the details around her What do the observations in Dorothy Wordsworth's journal suggest about her? he is frightened by the tale but is wiser because of it In The Rime of the Ancient Mariner, how does the Wedding Guest change over the course of the Mariner's tale? he killed an albatross What is the Mariner's crime? the sailors' death to the killing of the albatross The final stanza of Part III connects the mariner blessing the sea creatures "unaware" What is the turning point or climax of The Rime of the Ancient Mariner? Scotland In the introduction to Frankenstein, Shelley describes a dreary place in _____ where she spent her childhood as a child. The appearance of Shelley's monster came from William Wordsworth Coleridge's friend Samuel Taylor Coleridge, well known for literary criticism. Mary Shelley, gothic writer, William Blake, known for having religious visions, Jane Austen, never married, dark ages. Which historical period appealed to the Romantics? false True or false? Lord Byron spent his entire life living in England. false True or false? The British government exiled Byron because of crimes he committed. false True or false? The woman described in "She Walks in Beauty Like the Night" is beautiful because of her appearance only. false True or false? "Apostrophe to the Ocean" is written in free verse, with no particular rhyme scheme. true True or false? Throughout the poem, Byron uses imagery to juxtapose the power of the ocean with the insignificance of man. true True or false? "Apostrophe to the Ocean" exemplifies the Romantic notion that man cannot tame nature. Byronic heroes are unhappy and fight only for their personal ideals. How is the Byronic hero different from the traditional hero? Batman One modern-day example of a Byronic hero is he lived to be almost 30 years old. Which of the following is true of Percy Bysshe Shelley? none of his works remain. What is ironic about the words on the statue of Ozymandias? a barren desert. What is the setting of the poem "Ozymandias"? arrogant. The king Ozymandias can be best described as the wind is a dominating force of nature, affecting earth, sky, and sea. What do sections 1-3 of "Ode to the West Wind" reveal about the speaker's understanding of the West Wind? develops sensory images of nature. Shelley's use of diction in "Ode to the West Wind" death. John Keats was concerned about _____ in both his life and his poetry quest for truth The poem "When I Have Fears that I May Cease to Be" demonstrates the Romantic dying alone Which is not one of the speaker's fears in "When I Have Fears That I May Cease to Be"? the urn "Ode on a Grecian Urn" is an apostrophe to true True or false? Keats focuses on the urn by not referring to himself, the speaker, in the "Ode on a Grecian Urn." true True or false? The idea that beauty and truth are related and important is a typical Romantic idea. true True or false? The speaker in "Ode on a Grecian Urn" envies the "fair youth," "bold lover," and "melodist" because they will not be affected by time. true True or false? The speaker in "Ode on a Grecian Urn" describes the urn with a series of similes in lines 1-3. damage : reject :: spurn :: spoil :: dirge : split :: cleave :: song : teeming :: collect : glean :: full : true True or false? Both Keats and Basho use structured forms for their poetry. the effects of time Both Basho and Paz describe Keats and Basho Which poets use imagery to describe seasons? Keats Which poet includes spiritual imagery along with his description of the natural world? nuclear power Which of the following was not an invention or discovery during the Victorian Age? 25% What percentage of the world's population was ruled by Queen Victoria by the year 1897? Charles Dickens Which of the following is a novelist who spoke about the plight of the poor in Victorian society? Charles Darwin Naturalism was greatly influenced by the work of people who were hopeful about progress but doubtful about new ideas Which of the following describes attitudes during the Victorian Age in general? Alfred, Lord Tennyson poet laureate of England Elizabeth Barrett Browning married another famous poet Gerard Manley Hopkins Jesuit priest Lewis Carroll well known for children's literature hopeful In "Crossing the Bar," the imagery creates a _____ mood the speaker compares death to a crossing bar in hope that he will meet God. Which is the best summary of "Crossing the Bar"? he fills as though his life at home is not exciting or fulfilling. In the poem "Ulysses," how does Ulysses feel about his life at home? an older man. Based on the poem, we know that Ulysses is his life is not fully used yet. What is the meaning of the metaphor in lines 18-23 of "Ulysses"? a life well lived is one that continues to strive for achievement. Which is a theme of the poem "Ulysses"? interest in progress and optimism about the future. What Victorian values are exhibited by Ulysses? apostrophe. Which literary element does not occur in "Sonnet 43"? her past was unhappy. What can you infer about the speaker's past in "Sonnet 43"? nature. "Pied Beauty" describes in God and the spiritual nature of man. In both "Pied Beauty" and "Spring and Fall: To a Young Child," the speaker believes her own mortality. In "Spring and Fall: To a Young Child," Margaret is really worried about showing that man is a part of nature, not master over it. Victorians felt that they could bend nature to their own purposes. Hopkins's poem "A Boy Slays the Jabberwock" and returns home as a hero. Which is the best summary of "Jabberwocky"? the atmosphere begins fearful but heroic and ends joyful. How does the atmosphere of the poem "Jabberwocky" change? extended metaphor. Which element is not created by nonce words in "Jabberwocky"? affects life and the world. All of these works about love agree that love is not all: it is not meat nor drink. Which of these works says that love is not as important as others sometimes make it seem? sonnet 43. Which work has the least realistic tone? millay; Browning _____ is restrained by love. _____ is set free by love. Romantic love has remained constant for centuries. In the essay, one argument states that love is a cultural delusion. What fact from the essay "What Is Love?" best refutes this argument? she was married at a young age Which does not describe the life of Charlotte Brontë? servant While at Gateshead, Jane Eyre is treated like a (an) believes that she is kind to Jane because she has taken her in Which of the following describes Mrs. Reed from Jane Eyre? she is intimidated and miserable Based on the descriptions in Jane Eyre, how does Jane feel about her surroundings? cause social reform Charles Dickens intended his novels to he is insensitive In Oliver Twist, the man in the white waistcoat does not understand why Oliver is crying. What does this reveal about him? cruelty can be disguised as kindness Which of the following is a theme of both these excerpts from Oliver Twist and Jane Eyre? Robert Browning happily married to another poet Matthew Arnold proponent of arts and sciences in education A. E. Housman a professor who tutored his siblings Thomas Hardy wrote about themes of love in marriage a duke Who is the speaker in “ My Last Duchess”? she is too friendly with other men How does the speaker of “ My Last Duchess” feel about the duchess? she is either murdered or sent away What happens to the Duchess in “ My Last Duchess”? the irregular meter reinforces the flow of the sea How does the meter in the first two stanzas of “ Dover Beach” support the imagery? love can overcome difficulties What is the theme of “ Dover Beach”? when he won a race and when he died In “ To an Athlete Dying Young,” when is the subject of the poem carried “ shoulder-high”? the dog is not digging to mourn the death of the speaker In “ Ah, Are You Digging on My Grave?”, how is the dog’s response ironic? the tone in the darkling thrush is pessimistic How does "The Darkling Thrush" differ from earlier poems of the Victorian era such as "Crossing the Bar"? stoical man with a good heart At the beginning of the book, Mr. Utterson is described as a he steps on a young girl who has run into him What is the first violent event involving Mr. Hyde? mr hyde had been seen entering there What is the importance of the door mentioned in the first chapter? dr jekylls will mentions mr hyde How does Mr. Utterson know about the connection between Mr. Hyde and Dr. Jekyll? the will mentions the possibility of mr jekylls disappearance What is strange about Dr. Jekyll's will? science is somehow at the root of the mystery What is foreshadowed by revelations such as Lanyon's disagreement with Jekyll and Hyde's entering only through the laboratory entrance? utterson thinks "if he be mr hyde, i shall be mr seek" How does the reader know that Mr. Utterson will look for Mr. Hyde? he is small and somehow mishappen What does Mr. Hyde look like? utterson believes that jekyll is in danger if hyde finds the will At the beginning of the chapter "Dr. Jekyll Was Quite at Ease," Utterson is glad to speak to Jekyll after his dinner party because jekyll has a great interest in hyde Jekyll asks Utterson to help Hyde because a maid saw him attack an older man Mr. Hyde is thought to be a murderer because mr utterson identified the body The victim is known to be Sir Danver Carew because mr hyde attacks him with a cane Sir Danver Carew dies like something from a nightmare As Mr. Utterson leads the police to the home of Mr. Hyde, he describes the changing hues of twilight. The paragraph begins with "It was about nine in the morning, and the first fog of the season." Mr. Utterson believes that the atmosphere in the city is few people have seen him Mr. Hyde may be difficult to locate because utterson knows that they are going to meet in secret What is not learned during the conversation between Utterson and Jekyll in "The Incident of the Letter"? disappears for months Following the murder, Hyde Jekyll returns to normal life What happens first in the chapter "The Remarkable Incident of Doctor Lanyon"? Jekyll lives in seclusion What happens second in the chapter "The Remarkable Incident of Doctor Lanyon"? Dr. Lanyon dies What happens third in the chapter "The Remarkable Incident of Doctor Lanyon"? Utterson receives a letter to be opened if Jekyll dies or has gone missing What happens fourth in the chapter "The Remarkable Incident of Doctor Lanyon"? Jekyll is terrified and shuts the window When Utterson and Enfield see Jekyll in his upper window, what is unusual about their conversation? Poole is afraid Utterson goes to Jekyll's because Hyde is found dead What is the climax of the story? a suicide note from Hyde Which is not found as Utterson and Poole search the laboratory? break into Jekyll's room and remove a drawer Jekyll's letter asks Lanyon to Hyde drinks a mixture while in Lanyon's home Lanyon understands Jekyll's secret because Jekyll = father Hyde = son Which quote best describes the emotional relationship between Jekyll and Hyde? Poole works in Jekyll's home Jekyll doctor who experiments with the duplicity of man Utterson lawyer Enfield Utterson's cousin Lanyon has professional differences with Jekyll Hyde accused of violent acts Mr Hyde "It wasn't like a man; it was like some damned juggernaut." Mr Utterson "In this character it was frequently his fortune to be the last reputable acquaintance and the last good influence in the lives of down-going men." Dr Lanyon "The rosy man had grown pale. . . he was visibly balder and older; and yet it was not so much these tokens of a swift decay that arrested the lawyer's notice, as a look in the eye and quality of manner that seemed to testify to some deep-seated terror of the mind." Dr. Jekyll". . . it was as an ordinary secret sinner, that I at last fell before the assaults of temptation." British expansionism and colonization British imperialism is realism Which of the following is not a characteristic of modernism in art and literature? steam engine Which of the following is not an important discovery or invention of the Modern Age? (Hint: Use the timeline.) true True or false? Winston Churchill became an important leader during World War II. false True or false? Modernist authors used realism as a way to portray the violence of war. true True or false? Authors such as Virginia Woolf and George Orwell influenced public political opinions. British Imperialism Rudyard Kipling was a staunch supporter of takes place in India and uses Indian words and terminology. In "Miss Youghal's Sais," there are many vocabulary footnotes because the story... He wants to see Miss Youghal. Why does Strickland become a sais? British Imperialism. What political ideas of the time period are reflected in "Miss Youghal's Sais"? false True or false? Kipling shows his lack of support for British imperialism by criticizing British influence in India throughout the story "Miss Youghal's Sais." he senses it through the constant desire for expensive items. In "The Rocking-Horse Winner," Paul is aware of his mother's desire for money because something will happen to Paul Throughout the story, foreshadowing is used to suggest that money is more important than love in modern society The final lines of the story suggest that He avoids the mundane reality of the world. What do the narrator's illusions and disillusionments reveal about his personality? in the last sentence of the story In "Araby," when does the epiphany occur? He understands that his romantic feelings for Mangan's sister aren't real. How does the epiphany change the narrator in "Araby"? eerie The atmosphere of "The Demon Lover," can be described as reveal the relationship between Kathleen and a soldier In “ The Demon Lover,” flashback is used to a supernatural element In “ The Demon Lover,” the appearance of the letter and the ending of the story reveal the soldier never really loved her. Through her flashbacks, Mrs. Drover, from “ The Demon Lover,” realizes that Rudyard Kipling won the Nobel Prize for literature D. H. Lawrence outspoken critic of World War I James Joyce lived on the street where his story takes place Elizabeth Bowen part of the Bloomsbury Group William Butler Yeats “ We should write out our own thoughts in as nearly as possible the language we thought them in, as though in a letter to an intimate friend.” Dylan Thomas “ A good poem is a contribution to reality. The world is never the same once a good poem has been added to it.” T. S. Elliot “ The experience of a poem is the experience both of a moment and of a lifetime.” Siegfried Sassoon “ I am not protesting against the conduct of the war, but against the political errors and insincerities for which the fighting men are being sacrificed.” W. H. Auden “ Poetry makes nothing happen. It survives in the valley of its saying.” soldiers dream of their everyday life to avoid thinking about the war. the poem “ Dreamers” may be titled this because The tone shows the hopelessness and sorrow of the war and its aftermath. How does the poem “ Dreamers” reflect the historical or cultural ideas of the Modern Age? He loves her inner nature. In “ When You Are Old,” how does the speaker’s love differ from the others? art and song In “ Sailing to Byzantium,” what is immortal? a dark, dirty city What is the setting is presented by the sensory images in “ Preludes”? flowery language to romanticize war Which is not an element of Modernism shown in “ Preludes”? Verbal that modern life may not be perfect. “ The Unknown Citizen” uses _____ irony to show _____ unsuccessful businessman Which of the following is not part of the description of the man in “ The Unknown Citizen”? their words were not well received In “ Do Not Go Gentle into that Good Night,” the wise men should rage against death because death and life What might dark and light symbolize in “ Do Not Go Gentle into that Good Night”? the opposition is portrayed in a frightening or unattractive manner. What do the British and German posters have in common? Suspicious What is the tone of the yellow “ Beware” poster? to show the strength of the German nation

Answer

What is the message of the German poster? create support for the war effort
The article explains that the purpose of propaganda is to sponsorship from a famous person
What is not a persuasive technique used in the article “ Down and Out in Europe”?
Reagan is responsible for strong economic policies In the Reagan commercial, the main idea is that Each focuses on past strengths
How are the two commercials similar? Reagan Which candidate won the election in 1980? British Imperialism
What historical element is most clearly shown in “ Shooting an Elephant”? to avoid looking like a fool
Why does Orwell shoot the elephant in “ Shooting an Elephant”? He sympathizes with the Burmese People Based on “ Shooting an Elephant” what is Orwell’s overall impression of British colonization? Laborers are called coolies
What is the importance of the term coolie in “ Shooting an Elephant”?
World War I
The article “ The Great War and Modern Memory” deals with a noun referring to the soldiers killed each day
As explained in “ The Great War and Modern Memory” how did soldiers use the word wastage? overstatement
In “ A Room of One’s Own” Woolf’s idea that gifted women during the 16th century would have gone crazy or committed suicide could be considered an example of sarcasm
What element of style is used throughout “ A Room of One’s Own” to develop the author’s tone? because women may have written these works but could not use their names In "A Room of One's Own" why does Woolf mention authors who used "Anon" rather than a name when publishing their works? both appeal to emotion more than intellect How does the speech "Be Ye Men of Valor" compare to the posters? 9 years how long food rationing continued in Britain after the end of World War II in 1945? 800 million About how many people throughout the world speak English as a first or second language? all except for Antarctica Which continents have countries that belong to the British Commonwealth of Nations? Britain's economy was crumbling because of expenses following World War II. What was a major factor causing Britain's reduction of colonies abroad? the era of literature after the Modern period. The term post-modern refers to civil warfare What was one common problem in former British colonies as they gained their independence from Britain? true True or false? Several recipients of the Nobel Prize in Literature wrote in English but were neither British, Irish, or American. the people thought he was playfully waving. In "Not Waving but Drowning" why didn't anyone rescue the man? the cold water caused his heart to fail In "Not Waving but Drowning" "They" believe he died because emotional distance In "Not Waving but Drowning" what is one connotation of the words "too far out"? He did not follow in his father's way of life. Why might the speaker of "Follower" feel haunted by the memory of his father? memories of the speaker's family The three selections "Follower", "Mnemonic", and "Photograph" all depict vivid imagery All three selections, "Follower", "Mnemonic", and "Photograph", develop a picture for the reader by using The house is compared to the sea, a goblet, and a plant with roots. Which is an example of mixed metaphors in "Wind"? is no longer friends with the visitor Based on the conversation in "That's All," you know that Mrs.

ApausesIn “ That’s All” what other than dialogue is used to convey meaning? what she can do to helpIn “ A Mild Attack of Locusts” Margaret struggles with the internal conflict ofTrinidad“ B. Wordsworth” is set inHe may be from a higher social class or have been educated in British schoolsIn the story, B.
Wordsworth uses standard English. What does this indicate about him?
Wordsworth does not wan the boy to witness his deathWhy does B.
Wordsworth ask the boy never to return? has learned to be a poet like B.
WordsworthIn “ B. Wordsworth” the boy’s tears show that hemankind honors losses but does not protect the fragile earthWhat is the overall theme of “ Elegy to Giant Tortoises”? the tortoises battling for survivalIn “ Elegy to Giant Tortoises” what image is created by the metaphor of the tortoise shells as “ useless armor”? Stevie Smithworked as a secretarySeamus Heaneytaught at HarvardMargaret Atwoodlived in the forests of QuebecTed Hugheswrote poetry, children’s books, and playsDoris Lessingbanned from South AfricaHarold Pinteran actorV. S. Naipaulborn on the Trinidad in the Caribbean