Oh Mountains of Makkah, what can you say Of the day that Abraham passed your way And He was instructed by God to build

A House of peace where people will pray
And they will come on every lean camel and out of every ravine
For the purpose of praising Allah, to glorify Allah
Oh Mountains of Makkah, what can you tell
Of the day that stones from the sky fell
Destroying an army determined to break
The House of Allah that Abraham built
Oh Mountains of Makkah, how was the dawn
On the day that my Prophet Muhammad was born
How did it feel knowing he was to be, the last and most beloved of all Rasul of Allah, Nabi of Allah Oh Mountains of Makkah, oh you were there
When the Prophet Muhammad climbed down in despair

Engraved in his heart were the words of his Lord
To all of mankind this was his call
La ilaha illAllah, Muhammad-u-Rasullullah
Oh people praise only Allah, Glorify Allah
Oh Mountains of Makkah, how did you mourn
On the day that the beloved returned to his Lord
And up till the last breath escaped from his lips
He prayed that his Ummah would find success
Oh Mountains of Makkah how will it feel
When the earth shall quake and tremble with fear
And we shall be gathered together to stand
In the court of Allah with our deeds at hand
Oh how we pray that on that day, we'll be with those to whom Allah will say

Peace be with you, I am pleased with you
Oh Mountains of Makkah, Bear witness that I
To the oneness of Allah do I testify
For all that He's given me, How can I deny
My purpose in life should be only to cry
La illaha illAllah, Muhammad-u-Rasullullah
There is no god but Allah, Muhammad's His Messenger
La ilaha illAllah, Muhammad-u-Rasullullah
There is no god but Allah, Muhammad is he's
His Messenger
Allahumma Salli Alla, Muhammad

Rasullullah Allahumma Salli Alla, Muhammad Nabi Allah Allahumma Salli Alla, Muhammad Rasullullah Allahumma Salli Alla, Muhammad Rasul of Allah
