

Lupita mañana, chapters 1 – 3

ASSIGN
BUSTER

" bided her time" waited for an opportune time stucco a cement or plaster for surfacing walls chambermaid the maid who takes care of a hotel room porcelain ceramic ware made of a more or less translucent ceramic stilt-like leg thin, skinny legs adobe clay used to make sun-dried bricks corrugated iron ridged and grooved iron bewildered confused mournful sad " say the rosary" a set of beads used to record prayers confirmation a ceremony where someone baptized is named a full member of the Church privy bathroom, outhouse ajar open, as in " the door was ajar" Masses Christian services of the Eucharist or Holy Communion strewn scattered about condolences consolations mole large structure acting as pier or causeway marlin large edible fish hull main body of ship bow front end of ship gang plank movable plank for entering and exiting ships prow pointed front end of ship forecastle front part of ship below deck deck ship's floor wharf place in harbor where ships moor bewitched put a spell on someone nun female person part of religious group " ears... playing her false" she is not hearing correctly; considering its truth value impose take advantage of someone grief-bruised mind weak at mind from grief; having sorrowful thoughts monitor a student with disciplinary or other special duties during school hours despite in spite of plummeted fallen or dropped straight down at high speed chided scolded or rebuked someone opinioned tied or held someone by the arms or legs sullen bad-tempered and sulky ON LUPITA MAÑANA,
CHAPTERS 1 - 3 SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13. 90/PAGE Order Now