Women's Liberation :

Tagore says, "Women is God's best creation". Women is the perennial source of inspiration for man in the odyssey of life. Both men and women live the same life and they have the same feelings, same soul and they face similar problems. So, men and women complement each other as the one cannot live without the other's active help. Gandhiji said, "So long as women in India do not take equal part with men in the affairs of the World, we shall not see India's start rising". "Men who suffered from paralysis of one side of the body can do no work. Similarly if women do not share in men's task, the country is bound to remain in a wretched state".

According to Gandhiji what the women needed most was Education.

Women's birth right to be free and equal must be recognised. She should become independent like man.

Tradition bound India :

Nehru says, " When women moves forward, the family moves, the village moves and the nation moves". Gandhiji wanted to abolish the superstitions of traditions bound India. He wanted to abolish untouchability, child widowhood, child marriage and superstitions partices. As a boy Gandhi was a dominating husband. He wanted implicit obedient from Kasturba. he never allowed her to go out without his permission. But later he regretted for that.

The Female Sex :

Victor Hugo says, " Men have sight but women have insight". Gandhiji said that the female sex was not the weaker sex. the female sex is nobler then the male. Without women, man could not be. Gandhi praised women's power of non-violence and Ahisma. He wnted women to be as free as the husband to choose her own path. God has endowed with the quality of forgiveness. And their hearts are overflowing with love. Gandhi wants then to utilise the gift and they should act as the messagers of the gospel of non-violence. They should establish peace.

God could not be everywhere, that is why he made mother. So let us worship woman.
