anta. O Allah! It is Your mercy that I hope for so do not leave me in charge of my affairs even for a blink of an eye and rectify for me all of my affairs. None has the right to be worshipped except You. Dua For Distress and Grief (Taken from USC-MSA website) This is based on the following saheeh hadeeth reported by Imaam Ahmad (translation adapted from www. islam-qa. com; see question 1392): The Messenger of Allaah (peace and blessings of Allaah be upon him) said: ‘ There is nobody who is afflicted with distress or grief and who says: “ Allaahumma inni ‘ abduka wa ibn ‘ abdika wa ibn amatika, naasiyati bi yadika maadin fiyya hukmuka ‘ adlun fiyya qadaa’uka, as’aluka bi kulli ismin huwa laka sammayta bihi nafsaka aw ‘ allamtahu ahadan min khalqika aw anzaltahu fi kitaabika aw asta’tharta bihi fi ‘ ilmi al-ghaybi ‘ indaka an taj’al al-Qur’aana rabee’a qalbi wa noor sadri wa jilaa’a huzni wa dhihaaba hammi.’ ‘ O Allaah, I am Your slave, son of Your slave, son of Your maidservant, my forelock is in Your hand, Your command over me is ever executed and Your decree over me is just. I ask You by every name belonging to You which You have named Yourself with, or which you revealed in Your Book, or which You taught to any of Your creation, or which You have preserved in the knowledge of the Unseen with You, that You make the Qur’aan the life of my heart and the light of my breast, and a departure for my sorrow and a release for my anxiety, ” — but Allaah will take away his distress and grief, and replace it with ease.’ He was asked, ‘ O Messenger of Allaah, should we not learn it?’ He said, ‘ Of course, whoever hears it should learn it.’ Allah (swt) says in the Qur’an: “ When My servants ask thee concerning Me, I am indeed close (to them): I listen to the prayer of every suppliant when he calleth on Me: Let them also, with a will, Listen to My call, and believe in Me: That they may walk in the right way. ” (2: 186) In one of <https://assignbuster.com/bismillahir-rahmanir-rahmeem/>

my favorite Friday sermons, Ustadh Hassan Elwan explains that to get what you want in this life, there are materialistic means and spiritual means.

Many times our fault is that we focus so deeply on the material means that we forget that there are also spiritual means. Here are my top 5 "Islamic means" to getting better test scores: 1. Don't sacrifice your time with Allah If we find ourselves so busy that we can't pray on time or go to Friday prayers, then we need to reevaluate our study methods. I guarantee people balance their rights with Allah with their study time and have harder schedules than us. I can also safely say that they are probably scoring higher than us with less stress and overall time allotted for "studying." If we set time for Allah, do we really think He will leave us hanging in the 11th hour? Do we really think He won't help us when calculus seems like a foreign language? Are we really going to fail when we "sacrifice" our time by praying on time?

Trust me, the only thing that's going to happen if we sacrifice our time with Allah and miss our prayers is that we're going to end up like LeBron James in the 4th quarter. When you pray, or drive that extra 15 minutes to make it to Friday prayer, or take 15 minutes to read a page of Qur'an before bedtime, you are giving that time to Allah, but you are not losing it. If anything, it made your lecture more understandable and easier, so what would have taken 4 hours to understand, took only 2 hours. All because you stepped up to the challenge and didn't use finals as an excuse for not taking care of the rights of Allah upon you. 2. Take advantage of your beautiful relationship with Allah When we're faced with tough lectures or challenges, instead of running around stressing out, we should stop and think, what is the best worship at this moment? A person who takes advantage of his beautiful relationship with Allah understands that if there are 100 slides left in his lecture that make no sense to him, he's going to take a 2 minute break and pray 2 rakah, because he knows that when he does this, his work is going to get done. Another tip is to say " Bismillah" before beginning to study and before beginning your exam. Not simply saying the phrase, but really meaning it. What does Bismillah mean anyway? It means that you are actually seeking the help of Allah, the All-Knower and All-Wise, before you begin studying or before your test. When you say it with meaning and really take just 30 seconds to reflect on it's meaning, there will be blessing in your work.

3. Minimize sins Imam ash-Shafi'ee, who was renowned for his amazing memory, once said: " I complained to Waqee' (his teacher) about my weak memory and he told me to stop comitting sins for knowledge of Allah is the light so how can light be given to a sinner? " Thus, a practical way of memorizing better is to cut down on our sins. We should try to stay away from the sins we struggle with at all times, so that the fruits can be sought during our tough times. Be sure that Allah will recognize your effort and perhaps grant you better memory.

4. Effective Dua' (supplication) to Allah How do we speak to our Lord? The joke on students is that most of us become really " religious" around exam times by praying more and making dua' more to Allah (swt) for help. However, most of us don't make this dua' effectively. To make an effective dua' that is more likely to be accepted, we must first learn the etiquettes of dua'. Once we've done that, there are a couple of extra things we can do: * Make dua' before studying Put blessing into your work before you start it. This also serves to prepare us and put us in a state of mind to handle business. Our work will go much smoother when we already asked for Allah's help before we start. * Make dua' while you study This comes in handy when we are putting effort into our work, but need that extra “ push” to really get through. During one of your breaks, take the time and make a 1-2 minute request of Allah to make it easy. Be sure that it will be easier after. * Make dua’ after your finished for the day.... each day This wraps up the day and gives you the confidence that Allah will help consolidate into your mind whatever you have studied. * Make dua’ for your classmates The Prophet (saw) is reported to have said: “ The dua’ of a Muslim for his brother in his absence will certainly be answered. Everytime he makes a dua’ for good for his brother, the angel appointed for this particular task says: `Ameen! May it be for you, too’. ” [Muslim]. So the more people you make dua’ for, the more you get back. * Make a personalized dua’ The dua’s that always float around on Facebook and E-mail during exam time are fine, but sometimes your situation is a little bit different. Make your dua’ personal because your situation is unique. Allah listens to the dua’ no matter who makes it and what language you make it in. Make a personalized dua’ for yourself and don’t get caught just repeating something you might not understand. Make it from the heart. However, many of us might complain: “ We’re not that good at making dua’ in Arabic” or “ I don’t know what to say. ” When this comes to mind, remember the hadith: The Prophet (saw) and Sa’ad were making a beautiful dua’. At the end of the prayer, a bedouin came up to the Prophet (saw) and said: “ O Messenger of Allah, I cannot make those beautiful words that you and Sa’ad are saying. ” And the Prophet (saw) asked: “ What do you say when you make dua? ” The man said: “ Oh Allah, give me Paradise and protect me from Hell fire, ” and the Prophet (saw) said: “ Everything we say goes around this. ” * Trust in Allah (swt), but realize you need to put in work: The problem with many of us is that we want success but we’re not willing to put the work in. Instead, we try and hide behind the excuse: " I'll trust in Allah, even though I only studied for 2 hours. " Don't escape from work. Don't avoid work. Just get down to it and then leave the results to Allah. Be deserving of Allah's help by trying your best, and remember the hadith: One day the Prophet (saw) noticed a Bedouin leaving his camel without tying it and he asked the Bedouin, " Why don't you tie down your camel? " The Bedouin answered, " I put my trust in Allah. " The Prophet (saw) then said, " Tie your camel first, then put your trust in Allah" (At-Tirmidhi) 5. Realize what happens afterwards is up to Allah If we make dua', follow all the steps to maximize our scores, make all our prayers on time, and work really hard during finals week, we'll get the best grades and be happy campers going into vacation. But we might also come up short. We might also not do so well. Remember that you put in hard work and time to make it this far. You did your very best. You asked Allah for the best, but sometimes, we won't be the best. In these difficult times, remember that the Prophet (saw) said: " Strange is the affair of the believer, verily all his affairs are good for him. If something pleasing befalls him he thanks (Allah) and it becomes better for him. And if something harmful befalls him he is patient and it becomes better for him. And this is only for the believer. " (Muslim) Whatever happens after an exam is better for you. If you did well, it's a reward for your hard work. If you didn't do so well, it's a learning experience or a wake-up call. Whatever happens after your finals, be content with what Allah has provided for you. What if it's hard to be content with your score? Make dua' and ask Allah to help you be content with whatever happens after finals. This prevents post-exam depression and stress for the next round of exams.

Answer : 1. Recite 'Rabb inniy maghloobun fantasir' as much as possible. 2.

We have no knowledge of Neil Armstrong having accepted Islam. 3. Q: How long can a married person stay away from his wife? A: A married person may stay away from his wife for whatever period that was mutually agreed upon. However, if the wife is not happy regarding the husband staying away, then the husband should meet his wife at least once every four months. Du'a for acquiring good memory In the Name of Allah, Most Merciful and Compassionate Read the following 10 times a day. It is a very effective dua for acquiring good memory and not to suffer forgetfulness: First recite verse 79 Sura Al-Anbiya Juz 17 Fa fahhamnaha Sulayman wakullan aataynahu hukmaw wa ilma. Wa sakkharna ma'a Dawuda wa'l-jibala yusabbihna wattayr wakunna fa'ileen. Then read the following: Ya Hayyu Ya Qayyumu Ya Rabba Musa waHarun waNuh walbrahim walsa waMuhammadin Sallallahu alayhi wasallam Akrimni bi jawdatil hifdhi wasur'ati fahhmi, Warzuqni hikmata wama'rifatal ilmi wa thabat- dhihni wa'l aqli wa'l-hilmi bi haqqi sayyidina Muhmmadin Sallallahu alayhi wasallam Ya Rabbal Alamin. O' Living, O' One Through Whom All Subsists, O' Lord of Musa, Harun, Nuh, Ibrahim, and Muhammad, honour me with good memory and understanding, Bestow me with wisdom, true knowledge and a firm intellect and mind with the blessing of Prophet Muhammad (Allah bless him and give him peace).

One of the most importing things is to avoid sins, and if you do commit a sin, one should perform two rak'ats of Tawba and ask forgiveness from Allah and the same each time. And Allah Knows Best wa-salaam alaykum
