

Anthropology exam 2

ASSIGN BUSTER

_____ is an example of internal colonialism, as per In/Equality.

Appalachia Which material condition was most effective in lowering the infant mortality rate in Bom Jesus? Ready access to clean water As per the 2010 U.

S. census, approximately how many Native Americans live in Texas? 171,

000 Of Texas' Indian reservations, which one has been occupied for the longest period? Alabama-Coushatta Reservation European colonizers who endeavored to turn egalitarian people into a regular workforce had a real problem with perceived egalitarian _____. Laziness As per Amanda Hitchcock, the volunteer aspect of dowry, its meaning as a mark of _____, has gradually disappeared. Love/security As per Amanda Hitchcock, the official rate of domestic violence in India is _____ than in the U. S.

Significantly lower As discussed in lecture, the encomienda system is an example of _____. Empire based capitalism As discussed in lecture, was it that enslaved Indian people, as a whole, were not as effective as enslaved Africans. Succumbed to Old World disease Massive unemployment in Greece (2012) resulting from government spending cuts mandated by the EU as a loan condition is an example of _____. Structural adjustment An option aimed at reducing adverse effects of argument culture is to expand our notion of "debate" so that it includes more

_____. Dialogue The In/Equality reading about accommodating imperialism discussed, in some detail, the roles of religion, family, households, race, ethnicity and _____. Gender roles Claire Sterk's research regarding prostitution in the AIDS era included interviews conducted in _____. Privet settings A _____ is a specific means of minimizing differences in wealth, power, and prestige between people.

Leveling device A given economic system includes _____ and _____.

Distribution and production _____ is an example of a country today where the percentage of people who stressed that they did not want to live next door to a person of another race was greater than that in the U. S.

India _____ is information or activities known only to a few people.

Esoteric Knowledge Many characterizations of shaman are flawed significantly because they neglect to account for the existing _____ context. Social Within its mainstream traditions, Islam teaches piety, virtue, and _____. Tolerance Among your readings was an article by a Harvard botanist who investigated mystic potions, voodoo rites, and _____.

Zombies The Mondragon Corporation is/was the seventh-largest Spanish company in terms of asset turnover and consists of a _____. Leading business group in the Basque Country The San plan their movement around the changing sources of _____.

Water Which of the following groups of individuals are the most respected among the Ju/'hoansi? Elders Which of the following terms refers to the largest/broadest group of people in the Kalahari Desert? San The individual who leads a Native American Church/Peyote Religion service is called a _____.

Roadman The Ju/'hoansi enter a trance or ASC through _____, the primary purposes being to heal the sick. Trance dancing When Clair E. Sterks ("Tricking and Tripping") would tell people of her research about prostitutes, the most frequently asked questions had to do with _____. How she gained access to the women rather than what she learned. For Sterks, the single most important technique for establishing relationships with prostitutes was allowing the women to _____. Tell their stories and engaging in dialogue. Claire E.

Sterk would occasionally suspend fieldwork when she When people were dying from AIDS; when she had trouble remaining objective; shifting settings and neighborhoods When asked to participate in illegal activities, such as holding drugs or money, Sterk would Explain that she was there as a researcher According to Sterk, the spread of sexually transmitted diseases have been historically blamed on _____. Prostitutes As asserted in “Tricking and Tripping: Fieldwork on Prostitution in the Era of AIDS,” the women in the project all resisted the notion that _____. They might be selling themselves As cited in “Tricking and Tripping: Fieldwork on Prostitution in the Era of AIDS,” one of the first challenges the researcher faced was _____. To identify locations where street prostitution took place As commented upon in “Tricking and Tripping: Fieldwork on Prostitution in the Era of AIDS,” in order for the researcher to develop a relationship _____ and _____ were the most visible and direct ways to make contact. Being supportive and providing practical assistance As suggested in “Tricking and Tripping: Fieldwork on Prostitution in the Era of AIDS,” being given a street name was a symbolic gesture of _____. Acceptance As set out in “Tricking and Tripping: Fieldwork on Prostitution in the Era of AIDS,” the author developed an identity that allowed her to be both a/an _____ and _____. Insider and an outsider As profiled in “Fighting for Our Lives,” the author’s interest in the topic of opposition in public discourse intensified following the _____. The publication of her book about communication between men and women As noted in “Fighting for Our Lives,” the author uses the word agonism to denote an automatic warlike stance; the word is derived from agonia, a Greek word meaning _____. Contest According to Tannen, appropriate alternatives to the argument culture include managing conflict by means of _____.

DialogueAs reported in "Fighting for Our Lives," the only group of professionals that was significantly more able than others to tell when people were lying was Members of the Secret ServiceAccording to Deborah Tannen, "the argument culture" _____. Urges us to approach the world, and the people in it, in an adversarial frame of mindThe average woman of the Alto shantytown in Brazil, as noted in "Death Without Weeping," experiences 9.5 pregnancies; the average number of these pregnancies typically ending in child death is _____. 3.5 deaths and 1.5 stillbirthsThe primary cause of the recent decline in infant mortality on the Alto do Cruzeiro has been the installation of _____. Water pipes reaching almost all the homes in the shantytown with sufficient and clean water" Liberation theology" in Northeast Brazil has resulted in _____. Women began to think of themselves as capable of deciding how many pregnancies they would haveAs mentioned in "Rising Number of Dowry Deaths in India," demands for dowry can go on for years after the marriage, especially on the occasion of religious ceremonies or _____. The birth of a childAs given in "Rising Number of Dowry Deaths in India," the official rate of domestic violence in India is significantly lower than in _____. The U. S. What is generally true of shamanic beliefs, in their relation to the spirits? Spirits have a significant impact on society-must keep them happy for a healthy communityIn contrast to hunting shamanism, pastoral shamanism in Siberia involves illness being caused by transgressions of _____ rather than _____. Patrilineal kinship rules and by one's ancestral spirits; animal spiritsAs described in "Shamanism," the ritual life of the Tohono O'odham in southern Arizona and northern Mexico centered on _____. sufficient rainfall and crops and diagnose a series of sickness unique to the O'odham people According to "The Secrets of Haiti's Living Dead," legend has it that zombies are _____. The living dead, raised from their graves and animated by malevolent voodoo sorcerers, usually for some evil purpose Wade Davis found Haiti to be characterized by a great deal of _____. Cultural wealth and cohesion Bringing people from Mexico or Guatemala on contract to work at jobs in the U. S is an example of _____. Slavery? Using ideas about race as a strategy to keep people who are being exploited from revolting by getting them to fight each other is an example of _____. Divide and Rule Development in a country that is politically independent but whose economy is largely controlled by more powerful nations who guide the country's development in ways that allow the more powerful country to continue expropriating labor and resources is called Neocolonialism Poverty in Appalachia, particularly in Kentucky and West Virginia is a result of isolation of the region and not wanting to conform to a modern lifestyle A/an _____ is a group of people within a larger society who are thought to share the same national or cultural heritage, which is different from that of other groups in the society; generally created in the context of conquest or migration. Ethnic group Structural violence is caused by _____. Inequality built into the social structure and results in deaths, malings, malnutrition among those most seriously exploited A culture that is deterritorialized _____. Is a culture, or significant aspect of that culture, is no longer associated only with the territory or geographical area in which it originated A program pursued by a national government to reduce spending, usually by cutting programs and subsidies that benefit the poorer segment of a society is called _____. Austerity

program
Imperialism is different from neocolonialism because _____. Imperialism: The policy and practice of conquering areas outside the state, keeping them to some degree separate from the conquering state and expropriating value from the conquered area for the benefit of the elite in the conquering state. Neocolonialism:

Development in a country which is politically independent, but whose economy is dependent on other more powerful countries who guide the dependent country's development in such a way that they can continue the expropriation of labor and resources, much as they did during the control of the dependent country Gender inequality is more likely in _____.

Impoverished countries
Gender is largely the product of a socially constructed phenomenon

Why did it take so long for N! ai to consummate her marriage even though she "cheated" on her husband beforehand? She wanted to sleep with men she loved/liked Why did N! ai begin to like her husband?

When he became a healer
Why did N! ai think people lied about her daughter? To hurt N! ai because of jealousy
The most fundamental theme in the film about N! ai was the _____.

Militarization of the society
In the film titled Dead Birds, what was the significance of the "dead birds" concept? In Dani language it refers to the weapons and ornaments recovered in battle; people, because they are like birds, must die
According to the Dani, what do humans have in common with birds? That humans must die Dani subsistence was based primarily on _____.

A system of cultivation that depends upon irrigation, a form of agricultural intensification
What was the source of wealth among the Dani? Pigs
Where did most of the warfare take place among the Dani? No-mans land to the edge of enemy territory
Among the Dani, who did the weaving? Men At feast time the

_____.

Dani cooked large quantities of food in/on _____. Earth OvenAs of March 11, 2014, at 3: 45 PM CST, there were approximately _____ people on earth. 7, 220, 000, 000As per information presented in class from the World Population Clock, approximately how much did our planet's population increase between mid-January and mid-March of 2014? 29, 000, 000