Example of rhetorical question. The following statements are what type of rhetorical devices?

" The war is inevitable—and let it come! I repeat it, sir, let it come!"

" Peace! Peace!"— but there is no peace.

"... we must fight! I repeat it, sir, we must fight!"

Example of repetition. The following statements are what type of rhetorical devices?

"... give me liberty, or give me death!"

" We have petitioned; we have remonstrated; we have supplicated; we have prostrated ourselves before the throne"

Example of parallelism. The following statements are what type of rhetorical devices?

" No man thinks more highly than I do of the patriotism, as well as abilities, of the very worthy gentlemen who have just addressed the House. But different men often see the same subject in different lights; and, therefore, I hope that it will not be thought disrespectful to those gentlemen, if, entertaining as I do opinions of a character very opposite to theirs, I shall speak forth my sentiments freely and without reserve."

" Mr. President, it is natural to man to indulge in the illusions of hope... For my part, whatever anguish of spirit it may cost, I am willing to know the whole truth—to know the worst and to provide for it."
