The gorgeous filmy family girl Alia Bhatt is born in the famous Bhatt family of Bollywood. The girl though too early to start her career as a lead actress has struck a chord at both Abhinav Kashyap and Karan Johar's heart with the innocent spark in her face and dusky eyes.

The girl already touched the world with her debut movie SANGHARSH (1999) as a child artist which had Akshay Kumar and Priety Zinta as leads. Just as it is said that big things come in small packages, the child artist could wait no longer and has decided to start her career at a tender age of just 17. That also reminds us of our Bengali beauty Rani Mukherjee who also started her career at 17.

The powerhouse of talent that she imbibes in her genes, she is rumoured to have bagged her first offer from Abhinav Kashyap to play the lead opposite the Rockstar Kapoor in the film apparently titled BESHARAM. There is a buzz that Parineeti Chopra was being offered the role before. But fortunately, destiny had other plans waiting for her as Karan Johar decided to launch the Bhatt starlet for his long anticipated release Student of The Year opposite Varun Dhawan, son of David Dhawan. The film is co-produced by Bollywood's Badshah Shah rukh Khan. It is under the banner of Dharma Productions and Red Chillies Entertainment. The film is said to be a romantic comedy and expected to be released on 19th October this year. The young girl promises a lot to the film industry with her talent.

The Punjabi girl, sister to Saheen, Rahul, and Pooja Bhatt has hobbies like listening to music and partying. The dusk eyed brown-haired beauty is very much determined to leave mark on a positive mark in Bollywood. Thus though approached by a lot of directors and producers, she is patient and choosy about taking new work. She is focused and determined to climb to the pinnacle of success in due course of time, with the help of her patience, talent and beauty.
