

Driving under the influence essay

Life, Friendship

Driving a vehicle while under the influence of alcohol is one of the most dangerous things you can do.

There is research evidence to show that driving performance and reaction times are seriously affected by alcohol. In California the state law is .08% BAL. It is not only dangerous for you but it is also dangerous to your passengers, other vehicles, and pedestrians. There are so many consequences when it comes to getting a DUI. You can lose your driver's license for a long period of time, go to prison for murder if there was anyone killed because of it, it can also lead you to lose your job if your job included driving.

Having a DUI can also cause a person to have trouble looking for a job. There are so many different cases when it comes to getting a DUI. The loss of driver's license is a big issue when a DUI is issued. A person is entitled to have a judge hearing when their license is suspended or revoked. They have ten days to schedule a hearing, it is your responsibility to make that hearing. Make sure to send out all necessary paperwork in the mail. If the judge decides to keep your license they have the right to. The minimum time to have your license suspended is one year.

There is paperwork to fill out if you really need your license for family reasons or maybe school and work. If the judge grants you a temporary restricted license you would only be able to drive to and from work and school. Getting a DUI can change your driving privileges real fast. There are so many causes when receiving a DUI, but the worst cause is killing an innocent person such as; an innocent person or another driver also innocent. If the incident happens you could pretty much lose your life. DUI murders are really serious now a days. A person can spend life in prison depending how bad the incident was. In just one night of having a good time with friends and partying can lead to a 2 night your life ends and your whole life to change.

Also it could change the life of innocent people. If your job includes driving such as a truck driver or a pizza delivery having a DUI can cause you to lose your job and also be very hard to find another job. DUI are considered really bad in the state of California and they are getting really strict about them.

On a future application you would have to report that you have a DUI and employers might not like that. It's very hard to find a job. A DUI can stay on your record for up to seven years. Driving under the influence is a real serious crime.

It's not worth risking yours and other innocent people's lives. It's not worth losing your license and or job. It's illegal to drive under the influence in all states.

Having a designated driver is one of the smartest and intelligent things to do. Before you drink always think about other people and how you could affect their lives and yours as well.