Technology, Development

Even though people are supposedly smart enough compared to any other creatures, they are still having insecurities over their position in the world order as “ men went to and fro over this globe about their little affairs, serene in their assurance of their empire over matter” (Wells 3). One type of a ruling principle is monarchy and “ for this type of constitution to be good, it must not degenerate to tyranny” (Gaardner 97).

In a class of diversified individuals, “ the older students can help the younger ones if they are in trouble” (Marshall 39). With such rich natural resources, “ Indonesia is both a last frontier of the Pacific and a modern laboratory of development” (Indonesia: Promise and Paradox 39). Amazed with one of the American Idol contestants, “ I have a horrible feeling that it’s going to be a hit record” (San Diego F1). Works Cited Gaardner, Jostein. Sophie’s World.
