How to Prepare Italian Pizza

The thing that matters for a tasty pizza is the recipe and cooking technique.

To make a delicate Italian pizza, you will need:

1. Warm boiled water - 300 ml
2. Dry yeast - 10 g
3. Sugar - 2 tsp.
4. Salt - 1 tsp.
5. Flour - 500 gr
6. Vegetable oil (olive or sunflower) - 2-3 tablespoons.

To begin with, prepare a bowl - pour in warm water into a bowl, pour sugar, salt, yeast and one tablespoon of flour. Mix everything and leave for 15-20 minutes. After this time, the yeast will wander, covered with foam, and then you can begin to knead the dough. In a separate bowl, mix the remaining flour, salt, olive or sunflower oil, and pour the prepared frost. Stir the dough.

Making the proper dough consistency is essential. It should not be too tight. The perfect dough for a little pizza should be plastic and supple, but at the same time, it should not break, then the pizza will be tasty.

After the dough is ready, the most important step is to roll it out as thinly as possible. This recipe and the number of products are for three pizzas.

Therefore, before rolling, the dough should be divided into three equal parts. Roll the dough off, but stretch it on the bones of the fingers, scrolling it many times in your hands. Therefore, the basis for pizza turns out thin in the middle and thickened from the edges.

After the dough is rolled up and its thickness is ultimately satisfying for you, grease it with tomato sauce, sprinkle with spices, put oregano branches, put tomatoes and circles of Mozzarella cheese on the top. Put the pizza in the oven and bake for 10-12 minutes at a temperature of 250 degrees.

If your oven is not from the newest generation and the maximum heating temperature is lower than you should increase the baking time. After the pizza is ready to decorate it with fresh basil and serve it to the table. A fine Italian pizza on your table will surprise many!
