

Are the colder months in which the

Art & Culture, Artists

Are you looking to spice things up with your spouse or just a unique vacay destination for the first time with your loved one? Louisville is an exceptional destination that gives you unique and plenty of romantic and fun things to do for people in various age groups. 1.

Louisville Mega Cavern The Mega Cavern was once a limestone mine in the 1930's. This 17 miles man-made cavern stretching beneath Watterson Expressway and Louisville Zoo, offers a unique opportunity for underground exploration and an array of other fun filled, educational, historical and exciting activities. This cavern is home to the only underground zip line course in the world. For romantic getaways, you can, take a MegaQuest tour on the challenging roped walkways in the cavern; try the zip line in the underground parts of the cavern as never experienced before; or take a Jeep-drawn ride on the magnificent halls and caves in the MegaTram tour. All these tours are suitable for any age group and will be guided by professionally trained guides.

2. Visit the Iroquois Park Iroquois Park lies on a 739 acre land and offers diversified amenities for various outdoor activities. The park is the home of Iroquois Park Hill that gives you an exhilarating experience by providing a magnificent, panoramic view of the entire Louisville city from the top. For those who like to take the ventures at night, the view is even more breathtaking with both the view of the stars and the city.

The park also has many paths that provide great scenic strolls for couples, giving it that romantic touch. The top of the hill is accessible throughout the year and this particularly makes it attractive to the hikers and adventurers especially in the colder months in which the hill is covered in snow.

3. Kentucky Derby Museum Interested about learning the history and traditions of the Kentucky? The Kentucky Derby Museum is the place to visit. This Museum engages and educates the visitors on one of the main attractions in the Louisville region, Kentucky Derby. The museum showcases the traditions, hospitality and the History of the well renowned events The museum features a historic walk through of the Churchill Downs Racetrack, a 360 degree high definition film. Intriguing world class exhibits held by the museum include the Guinness World Record on the World's greatest race, largest horse shoe, various breeds of horses and other records that have over the years attracted visitors from all over the world to admire. 4.

Take a hot air balloon Ride There are some experiences that one has to savor and experience them with their significant other, private hot air balloons is just one of them. Taking a hot air balloon ride especially just before sunrise is among the most romantic dates in the air that you and your sweetheart could ever experience. Seeing the lush landscapes of Kentucky and the hills is a great way to learn new skills and get some fresh air and a fun way to create lasting vacation memories. You can even kill two birds with one stone if you get to try this one out and combine the annual Kentucky Derby Festival Great Balloon Glow and Race which provides people with opportunities to see the hot air balloons in motion.

5. A cruise on the Belle of Louisville Belle of Louisville is a steam boat that offers a good tour of the Ohio River, it is a great way to spend the afternoon cruising the water way and taking in some of the sights and sounds of this significant historical vessel. Finding a quiet place in a ship deck that provides you and your sweetheart a chance to enjoy the view especially on the couple's hours is worth a try. It is advisable to take a night cruise if the main aim is to have a hide-out place for quiet romantic conversation and a good view of the Louisville skyline and the Ohio River. The Great Steam Boat Race is also one of the events that Belle of Louisville participates in as part of the Kentucky Derby Festival. This event takes place three days before the Kentucky Derby whereby various steam boats compete and thousands of spectators watch the ships from both sides of the river during the competition. The Belle of Louisville also acts as the after party venue for the annual forecastle event that happens around July in the water front park. During this show, performers and other artists entertain the people as they get to experience the Louisville environment from the perspective of the river.

These are events that you will definitely want to check out depending on the time you take the vacation. 6. Take a bike ride at Waterfront Park Peddling alongside each other on a car free trail alongside each other is a great way to connect with each other and a great romantic activity. This beautiful park offers an exclusive bike trail along the Shore of Willamette River. Tourists get 180 minutes of cumulative bike ride time on the 2 miles park trail scenic ride. Along the trail, get to experience the view Ohio River and the Louisville skyline.

The beautiful park, trails and the bridges are breathtaking. The park also has a nice play ground where you can play various games or just take a walk on the trails after the bike ride. A great way to connect with each other! 7.

The Ashely inn This is a romantic country get away hotel that has packages for couples that offer very private rooms with a magnificent view of the equestrian center. The is located near Meadow lake in Lancaster in a 130 acres piece of land that has a view of beautiful horses that can be seen roaming from the inn. Continental breakfast is served in the mornings; there are also other several restaurants that offer other meals, custom made according to the consumers' needs and preferences. The inn also has a large pavilion that can be used for other events.