Convenience. Consumers are so overwhelmed by their obligations that they prefer quick products that allow them to feel more in control of their time. Some consumers will multi-task to compress more activities but still fail to maintain a healthy lifestyle by cooking from scratch less often and failing to exercise regularly. " Product solutions are needed to restore balance in consumers' life. " -Many consumers are feeling overwhelmed by their lifestyle obligations.

Time- pressured consumers express strong preferences for quick, efficiency-driven products that allow them to feel more in control of their time. This consumer group will multi-task in order to compress more activities into less time, leading to wide behavioral implications. For instance, time scarcity is a common reason for consumers failing to maintain a healthy lifestyle, including, skipping meals, eating on-the-go, cooking from scratch less often, and failing to exercise regularly. As a result, consumers are looking to simplify and reduce time in the kitchen.
