

Impression of three days to see

Literature, Russian Literature

Impression of three days to see I have read Three days to see many times. Recently . I read it again . Three days to see is a famous essay written by American writer Helen Keller. Miss Keller unfortunately got blind and deaf when she was very young, due to misuse of medication. However, She learned all lessons that a healthy woman can do with the help of teacher Sullivan and parents. She also mastered several foreign languages very well. What's more she was admitted into Harvard university . Finally she became the greatest educator and writer . In three days to see, Keller described a sense that if she had the chance to see this world , However only for three days, what she would do and how she would treasure her life in these three days . The first day she wanted to see people who had kindness , innocence and friendship . The second day she wanted to see her teacher Sullivan. The third day , she wanted to go to the art museum , and see the sunrise . The essay points the insensitivity of people with regards to appreciating the things in them and around them . That some people fail to appreciate things until the time that it is already gone . That some people only realize the importance of something when it is already lost . That at the end , people die without even knowing the value of life . So she advocated us that we should value the things that we own that now. After I have read it , it was deeply impressed me . Because it let me think that what is the true meaning of life ? How can I do to make my life more meaningful ? And I also know that I must do exercise often or I will lose my health. What's more , I should value all I own it rather than that I regretted for them when I lose it. Comparing with Helen Keller , We should treasure our life. God has given us sight. So we can see a lot of good things. We can know how beautiful this world is and how wonderful we can live in our colorful life . I think this excellent book have a huge influence on Chinese culture. Because the author Helen Keller set a good example for people that how to face the difficulties correctly and how to value the life? Especially for the disabled, her effort will make them become more brave to realize their dream . To tell you the truth, I didn't find what I dislike in this book. As far as I am concerned I think this masterpiece is perfect. It will guide my life road like street lamp shines in the dark. What's more, it raised me up a lot. And I can smile to life now. Just like one sentence saying, " All is well" . Because sometimes our misgiving has no basis. So let's forget the trouble, sadness and unhappy things rather than feel badly for them all the time, And then we will live a happy and meaningful life.