

Thesis statement essay sample

ASSIGN BUSTER

Staple's essay "Black Men and Public Space" uses autobiography, observation, and reflection to explain how stereotyping is common in today's world.

Topic Sentence:

Brent Staples' "Black Men and Public Space" uses autobiography to present a young black man who has had many experiences with other people around him thinking that he is a dangerous person just because of his physical appearance. "The youngish black man, a board six feet two inches with a beard and billowing hair, both hand shoved into the pocket of a bulky jacket" (132).

Topic Sentence:

Brent Staples' "Black Men and Public Space" uses observation to present the cause and effect of people reacting with fear to a black man, and people think black guy make them fearful so people tend to avoid him. "The language of fear" (133).

Topic Sentence:

Brent Staples' "Black Men and Public Space" uses reflection to explain about the stereotypes and opinions made about black men. Because of skin color, people mistake black people as criminals. "My first victim".