Twesigye, Emmanuel, the author of the book, “ Religion, Politics, and Cults in East Africa: Gods Warriors and Marys Saints” argues that Kony Joseph was a spiritual leader before being brutal to his own people. The author identifies that at first, all the Ugandan citizens promoted the works done by the Lord’s Resistance Army movement since it was fighting for human rights. However, the movement later has begun rejecting own people and participated in brutal family murders.

Hoffman, Ben. Peace Guerilla: Unarmed and in Harms Way, My Obsession with Ending Violence. Ottawa: Canadian International Institute of Applied Negotiation, 2009. Print.

In the book, “ Unarmed and in Harms Way, My Obsession with Ending Violence” the author, Hoffman Ben mentions that Joseph is responsible for numerous deaths in the entire east African society. Hoffman later identifies in the book that Kony has contributed to numerous wars in diverse nations such as Southern Sudan, Central African Republic, and Congo. For reasons of contributing to the wars, the international criminal court is charging Kony as a criminal.
