This can be provided in different linguistic communications. At schools, dawah oriented stuff can be provided during the forenoon assemblies and the schools recordings.

MEDIA AND ISLAM

Media has played a critical function in exposing the image of Islam both in positive mode and in negative mode. A unsmooth image of Islam is portrayed by many media runs. At the minute, Muslim media is seeking to clear up the true nature and place of Islam through Islamic channels. But due to the laterality of some foreign media, the attempts are useless. News through telecasting are the most critical beginning of acquiring cognition and information. Majority of the population relies on telecasting for acquiring information (Philo and Berry2006: 199) . The usage of engineering can be good in many ways like it can be used for the development of package ' s of Quran, Islamic books, calendar, zakat etc. it is the duty of the Muslims to research for Islamic package ' s and applications and increase them in such a mode that is merely adjustable

The representation of Muslims in different types of channels shows deficiency of acknowledgment of differences. Discrimination is extremely seen in different communities. Many channels try to demo that Muslims are a menace to security to major parts of the universe. The image of the Muslims is portrayed in this mode. The most dominant image is Muslim terrorist act (Imam, 2000) . It is the duty of the Muslim media to take the differences <https://assignbuster.com/the-islamic-application-systems-theology-religion-essay/> and clear up the true image of Islam through information engineering. The true image will ne'er be made if the muslims fail to do usage of information engineering and portray a true image of Islam. Educating non-muslims about the Islamic literature and rules is critical. Many on-line negotiations and treatment platforms are present over the cyberspace. Pal talk courier is present and can be easy downloaded. Members can take part in the group treatments with each other and with the bookmans excessively.

NEW STRATEGY

There is a demand for Muslims to travel towards a new scheme for the development of its instruction system. The principle towards this aim is to understand the jobs and issues faced by the Muslim people. Therefore schools, higher instruction establishments and bureaus and spouses must take necessary stairss to understand the cardinal constituents and issues of Muslims. Based on national and local context actions must be taken in all countries of educational life. For case issues faced by British Moslems today at local and international degree must be resolved. Dialogue must be held at national and local degree to explicate new schemes. Several schemes must be formulated. It is of import to travel farther towards the true significance of Islam and the recollection of ALLAH.

The major issues faced by the European Muslims must be resolved. Assess the current patterns and expertness of Muslims and run into there needs efficaciously. Balancing sectors must be supported and helped and effectual links must be made with the conventional schools. In order to actuate pupils, Islamic values must be offered.

Offering da'wah and educating people sing the Islamic instructions will be good non merely for the Muslims but besides for the non Muslims. This will clear up the spiritual positions of the non-Muslims with regard to religion Islam. It is the responsibility of educational establishments and the telecasting channels to utilize effectual agencies of communicating.

Multimedia presentations can be used by instructors to educate people. This will be more interesting and acquisition will be increased. Power point, slide shows have an astonishing consequence on the audience. Students must besides do attempts to do such presentations and contribute towards the acquisition experience. Skills will be improved and assurance will be gained excessively. These effectual agencies of communicating helps the reader every bit good as the audience a batch in clear uping the points and issues.

Suggestion

Information engineering and media has a batch of possible. There are many ways to acquire benefits out of these strong mediums. It is the duty of every Muslim to acquire Islamic instruction and it must non be restricted to the Islamic channels merely. Every Islamic channel nowadays at national degree plays an of import portion. Muslim plans and dramas must besides be shown in other amusement and household channels. Dramas and game shows are <https://assignbuster.com/the-islamic-application-systems-theology-religion-essay/> effectual manner to teach people and to learn them. This will increase the learning capacity of the people. In order to educate kids, life movies and series are the best option for learning about the instructions of Islam. This attempt is seen in Hindu faith. They have made movies on assorted characters like Ganesh and Godhead shibah. Schools and madrassa must hold Islamic web sites that will let them to cognize the true spirit of Islam and gather of import information. But it is besides important to update these web sites and proper care is besides required. Our spiritual bookmans must besides take part in societal networking sites and cognize different sentiments. Conversation must be held at national and local degree to explicate new schemes. Several schemes must be formulated. It is of import to travel farther towards the true significance of Islam and the recollection of ALLAH.

The major issues faced by the European Muslims must be resolved. Assess the current patterns and expertness of Muslims and run into there needs efficaciously. Muslim communities must promote other people excessively and take part in giving thoughts and positions. Many Islamic web sites are present every bit good as Arabic websites that will assist the pupils to widen their domain.

Decision

It can be concluded that media can play a really important function to distribute information. Technology has made it really easy for people to distribute Islamic instructions around the universe. Through engineering, we are able to garner and distribute information about Islamic literature and instructions.
