Does the spirit of Christmas bring meaning to your life as Christian-Catholic-Muslim? a) As a student As a student, Christmas means a good long vacation. To be able to share and cherish with old friends, new found friends, to our families and to everyone that's been part of our lives. It's also a time to forgive and forget about all the pain and trouble caused by our classmates or instructors. So let bygones be bygones so to speak. It's the best time to be merry outside school pressures and give oneself a break like going to places for vacation or visiting a relative, experiencing life beyond school zone.

Even a student deserves a merry Christmas and enjoy every moment of it for all its worth. b) Yourfamily“ The best Christmas of all is the presence of a happy family all wrapped up with one another. ” Every family has it's own traditions and habits. Every family is made up of a group of unique people who have one thing in common - a shared love and care for each other's well-being. Christmas is an opportunity for people of all ages to stop and think about the priorities in your life, about the people that matter most.

This is why Christmas can be a painful time for some people because they see other people's happiness at a time of bad memories and loss. This is also why Christmas is a time for family. No-one should be alone over Christmas. Christmas means many things to different people. What is true for all is that Christmas is a time for family. Christmas is a time for giving and receiving, for caring and sharing. Christmas is a time for making an effort to be with those who are important to us.

It allows us to be together and do things that don't happen every day, to bond deeper and appreciate each other even more. Whatever we think of <https://assignbuster.com/happiness-and-christmas/>

Christmas, Christmas is about spreading love to everyone. It's a perfect time to be happy and cleanse our heart and soul. c) Your faith Christmas can be a season of great joy. It is a time of God showing His great love for us. It can be a time of healing and renewed strength. Christmas is when we celebrate the birth of the Christ child, God sent His Son, Jesus, into the world to be born. His birth brought great joy to the world.

It is also a time for the completion of masses, a way of showing our great love for Jesus. We can truly be happy at Christmas! No matter what may be happening, we can know that we are His children. We then become sons and daughters of God. Whatever our beliefs, we should look at Christmas in a new way this year. This is the year to invite Jesus into our hearts. We will then have a " Merry Christmas. " The joy and peace we will receive will last all year as we look to God for all our needs to be met. Jesus Is The Reason For The Season....
