

Ap psych learning unit 1

ASSIGN BUSTER

novel tastes rats easily learn to associate nausea-producing radiation treatments with: unconditioned stimulus In Aldous Huxley's " Brave New World", infants develop a fear after books are repeatedly presented with a loud noise. In this fictional example, the loud noise is an ONAP PSYCH LEARNING UNIT 1 SPECIFICALLY FOR YOU FOR ONLY $13.90/PAGE Order Now conditioned response In Pavlov's experiments, the dog's salivation triggered by the sound of a tone was a organism's expectation that a UCS will follow a CSA person adhering to the cognitive perspective would be likely to emphasize that classical conditioning depends on an biological predispositions Garcia and Koelling's studies of taste aversion in rats demonstrated that classical conditioning is constrained by positive response Every Saturday morning Arnold quickly washes the family's dishes so that his father will allow him to wash his car. In this instance, washing the car is a(n): increase; increase Positive reinforcers _____ the rate of operant responding and negative reinforcers _____ the rate of operant responding. immediate; delayed Smoking, excessive drinking, and drug abuse demonstrate our greater responsiveness to _____ reinforcement than to _____ reinforcement. variable-interval Watching the night sky for shooting stars is likely to be reinforced on a _____ schedule. observational learning Our ability to learn by witnessing and imitating the behavior of others best illustrates: